

ONLINE REPUTATION MANAGEMENT

Your Online Reputation is your most powerful marketing; manage it!

Through online reviews customers create your hotel's online reputation, which today is more powerful and influential than your own marketing. Monitoring your online reputation is critical to understand how potential customers perceive the value of your hotel and will help you to take action in critical areas.

HOW IT WORKS

Our platform automatically collects and analyses online reviews from all major OTAs, TripAdvisor, Facebook, Google, etc and applies an industry-leading sentiment analysis to break down your customers' opinion about detailed characteristics of your hotel, facilities, service, etc, showing trends over time and comparing your ratings with the competitors of your choice.

(TRANSLATE), READ & RESPOND

Read and respond to reviews as soon as they are published. Translate foreign language reviews with the push of a button.

Respond instantly to online reviews.
