The Founding of the NAACP

On February 12, 1909 the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People was founded by a multiracial group of activists, who answered "The Call," in New York City, NY. They initially called themselves the National Negro Committee.

FOUNDERS

Ida Wells-Barnett, W.E.B. DuBois, Henry Moscowitz, Mary White Ovington, Oswald Garrison Villiard, William English Walling led the "Call" to renew the struggle for civil and political liberty.

NAACP Vision Statement

The vision of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People is to ensure a society in which all individuals have equal rights and there is no racial hatred or racial discrimination.

NAACP Mission Statement

The mission of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People is to ensure the political, educational, social, and economic equality of rights of all persons and to eliminate racial hatred and racial discrimination.

The Founding of the Dayton Unit NAACP

In 1914, from the 5th Annual Report of the NAACP: Prospective branches, most of the following are to be chartered in the near future:

Albuquerque, NM	Columbus, OH	New Orleans, LA	St. Joseph, MO
Atlantic City, NJ	Dayton, OH	Peoria, IL	Toledo, OH
Baltimore, MD	Des Moines, IA	Springfield, IL
Cincinnati, OH	Jacksonville, IL	Springfield, OH

The Dayton Chapter of the NAACP was established on February 9, 1915 at Zion Baptist Church. The Dayton Chapter NAACP was Officially Chartered by the NAACP Board of Directors on May 10, 1915. During that year, the chapter had 75 members. Its primary objective that year was to stop attempt at segregation in Dayton Public Schools. For the year the chapter raised $96 to further its work.

The First Branch Officers are as follows:

James C. Farrow, President; Moses H. Jones, Vice President; William O. Stokes, Secretary; Miss L.M. Troy, Treasurer; Rev. Robert T. James, Chaplain;

The First Executive Committee Members are as follows:

Charles Price; W. D. Chamberlain; Frederick Rike; Mrs. Charles S. Kumler; E. C. Harley; Rabbi David Lefkowitz; Rev. E. E. Thompson; Mrs. Julia Carnell; Dr. B. A. Rose

Dayton Unit NAACP Vision Statement

The Dayton Unit NAACP vision is to fulfill the Dream of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 by capitalizing on the 2nd "A" of the NAACP, which stands for ADVANCEMENT. (Copyright © Incorporated 2007 - DLF)

Celebration of the 100th Anniversary of the NAACP is also a celebration of the 60 distinguished pioneers who signed the Lincoln Day Call which led to the founding of the Association, February 12, 1909.

Among the founders, pictured on this page, were: Oswald Garrison Villard, who wrote the Call; Ida Wells-Barnett, a crusader against lynching; William English Walling, whose article on the Springfield, Illinois race riots of August, 1908, stressed the need for a "large and powerful body of citizens" to defend the rights of black people; Henry Moskowitz, a social worker among immigrants; W.E.B. DuBois, the multi-talented founder and first editor of The Crisis; Mary White Ovington, a social worker, who conceived the idea for an NAACP; Moorfield Storey, first NAACP president; and John Haynes Holmes, a minister.

Dayton Unit NAACP

2012 Annual Report

Goal: Inform, Educate, Empower

Derrick L. Foward, M.C.E., President

Message From The President:

Dear NAACP Members, Constituents, Church, Community and Business Leaders:

First giving Honor and Praise to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ who is the head of my life, because without him, we could do nothing.

In 2012, the Dayton Unit NAACP faced many challenges. From investigating the Joe Ross “Motel 6” case which was settled with undisclosed terms, to speaking out about the Deputy Chief Major John DiPeitro “Teen Hosed-Down Naked” case. The Dayton Unit NAACP’s voice for equality and justice continues to resonate throughout the Dayton region.

From a proactive standpoint, we educated hundreds of Dayton residents about issues ranging from healthcare to the death penalty, to the role of the church from a civic engagement standpoint to benefits for our Nations Veterans. As stated by many professionals, education opens doors for unlimited possibilities.

Our membership continues to grow and become more active, increasing by 5.1% versus the previous year. Our online activists grew to an impressive 2,200 Facebook friends, with very limited resources to accomplish this noble feat. We conducted 8 TV shows, highlighting minority businesses enterprises, hospice care, voting and other topics of interest.

We assisted 4 deserving students with scholarship opportunities and witnessed 2 of our ACT-SO students win National Medals at the National ACT-SO Competition in Houston, Texas. One Silver Medal in Computer Science and one Bronze Medal in Engineering.

Through the Dayton Unit NAACP Jobs Referral Program, we were able to secure 1 Apprenticeship Job and 15 Skilled Trades Jobs for workers in the construction industry.

Our youth led the charge in voter registration, knocking on more than 2,600 doors and registering more than 700 new voters. As a collective body, we attended more than 20 events throughout the year, registering people to VOTE!

In closing, never forgot to recognize the individuals who really love and care for you and will be with you until the end of time. We wish everyone a Blessed, Safe, Prosperous and Happy New Year. I am convinced that if you keep God first, you will receive the desires of your heart. To my Cabinet, I truly appreciate your support. Stay Blessed!!!
“Our Success Is Influenced By Your Actions (DLF).”

Your community servant,

Derrick L. Foward, M.C.E.
