

MEMORANDUM

To: High School Senior Counselors

From: Willie A. Terrell, Jr.
Chairperson of the Jessie O. Gooding, LaVerne B. Gooding, Miley O. Williamson,
1st Lady Jean A. Foward Youth Empowerment and Dr. Derrick L. Forward Visionary Leadership
Scholarship Programs

Date: October 24, 2020

In January 2021, the Dayton Unit NAACP will be awarding five scholarships to high school seniors in the Dayton and surrounding areas. Two of them will be in the amount of $1000 each from the Gooding Scholarship Program, which was created to recognize Jessie and his wife, LaVerne Gooding. Jessie served as president of the Dayton Unit NAACP. He retired after eighteen years in that capacity. There will also be a Miley O. Williamson Scholarship in the amount of $1000. Miley served the Dayton Unit as the Executive Secretary for several years. The fourth scholarship will be the 1st Lady Jean A. Foward Youth Empowerment Scholarship in the amount of $1000. Jean was the first youth adviser of the Littlejohn Junior NAACP Youth Council which was chartered on May 21, 2005. The fifth scholarship will be the Dr. Derrick L. Foward Visionary Leadership Scholarship in the amount of $1500. Dr. Foward is the current president of the Dayton Unit NAACP.

Applications are due by December 7, 2020

Please look at the attached guidelines and select potential recipients.
