Mrs. Williams Elected President Of NAACP
 Mrs. Marion Smith Williams was elected to succeed Rev. G. W. Sherard as Dayton president of the Nation Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP). The election took place last night at Linden Center.
 Other officers are Dr. M. R. Clarke, vice president; Oliver Robinson, treasurer, and Mrs. Milley Williamson, re-elected executive secretary.
 Mrs. Maud Krisher, newly-elected school trustee, spoke. The association discussed six suits filed against an Edgemont restaurant owner for refusing to serve six Negroes. They also discussed complaints against Jefferson street restaurant for refusing to serve two Negro soldiers. Officers said action will be taken against other food establishments in similar circumstances.
