Dayton Unit NAACP to Panel Discussion: “Be Counted! The importance of the 2020 Census and how YOU can help!”

DAYTON, OHIO - JANUARY 21, 2020 - The Dayton Unit of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) will host a Town Hall titled, “Be Counted! The importance of the 2020 Census and how YOU can help!” The event will be held on Monday, January 27, 2020 at 6:30 pm at Roosevelt Elementary School (formerly Dayton Boys Preparatory Academy) located at 1923 W. Third St. The distinguished guest panelists will be Nikol Miller, Chair, Dayton-Montgomery County Complete Count Committee; Judy Dodge, Montgomery County Commissioner; Jim Bebbington, Editor, Dayton Daily News; and Rob Schommer, Huber Heights City Manager. The moderator will be Scott E. Sliver, Chair of the Dayton Unit NAACP Communications, Press & Publicity Committee.

Janice Holland-Atwater and Donald Sanders, Partner Specialists, U.S. Census Bureau, will be hosting a booth at the meeting to distribute information and answer questions about the census and job opportunities.

"According to the 2010 Census, the City of Dayton had a population of 141,527, which African Americans made up 55,195 or 39% of the population. Montgomery County, Ohio had a population of 535,153, which African Americans made up 114,523 or 21.4% of the population. Let's work collaboratively together to ensure all African Americans are counted in the 2020 Census," said Dr. Derrick L. Foward, President of the Dayton Unit NAACP.
