Panelists for this Town Hall will be members of The Ecumenical Community; Fraternities; Sororities; Civic and Social Organizations; Law Enforcement; Shriners and Daughters of Isis; and Real Estate Brokers. The Moderator for this event will be Mattie White, Chair, Community Coordination.

“The objective of this meeting is twofold. The first is to reconvene the leadership of the Dayton Unit NAACP and the leadership of local Strategic Partners with whom we have an MOU agreement, in order to build and strengthen our relationship. The second is to strategize and develop the plan of action in key issue areas on which the NAACP and its partners will work together in 2020 in order to strengthen our communities,” said Foward.

Dayton Unit NAACP Strategic Partners

Founded in 1915, the Dayton Unit of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) is the city's oldest and largest nonpartisan civil rights organization. Its members throughout the Dayton Region and Montgomery County are the premier advocates for civil rights in their communities. Their core goals are to Inform, Educate and Empower the Citizenry as they pursue justice and equality for all Americans.
