

JOSEPH P. AND ROSE F. KENNEDY INSTITUTE OF ETHICS
THE INTENSIVE BIOETHICS COURSE, XXXVIII
“Setting Your Ethical Compass”

June 4-8, 2012

Maria Gussak, BA

has completed the 2012 Intensive Bioethics Course at Georgetown University. The IBC is an in-depth study of major topics and contemporary challenges in health care ethics. Topics included for this year's course included plenary lectures on: the ethical principles of respect for autonomy, beneficence, non-maleficence and justice; natural law and principlism; research ethics; palliative care; the principle of vulnerability in global bioethics; virtue ethics; and a number of special topics, including futility, organizational ethics; feminist bioethics, animal ethics, and a selection of bioethics film clips. This certificate is awarded to course members who fully participated in the Kennedy Institute's June 2012 course.

John Keown, DPhil, PhD
Course Director, IBC 2012