

The Market Place

The cost of a 4-Hor FFA animal project is higher than that of a commercial stockman because of the individual attention given to that animal's development. This is the market place that 4-H, FFA and independent members sell their animals raised from "learn by doing" livestock projects that teach them to select and care for animals. These are also commercial ventures to gain experience in the business world.

Custom Versus Resale

Resale: The animal will be automatically resold for you at the current market price. You will not take possession of the meat and are responsible only for paying the difference between your bid and the resale price.

Custom: The animal will be processed for you by the service of your choice, after which you will take possession of the meat.

Buyer takes possession of live animal: The animal will be ready for pick up after the auction.

Rabbit and poultry purchases Buyer needs to make arrangements with the Exhibitor for Processing: You must take the animal home and have it processed or arranged with the seller to have it processed on your behalf.

The many uses for your purchase

Resell The Animal Back • Receive the best possible benefit of a tax deduction for price paid above market value.

For Individuals • Put the quality wrapped meat in your freezer to enjoy year-around.

For Businesses • Present packaged meat to your customers, host a BBQ for employees, etc.

For Service Clubs • Host a BBQ, donate the meat, or auction off to boost the club's treasury, or consider donating animals to the PIG (PORK Is GREAT)!
