Name of Case: Margaret Ingoglia

Date: 10/19/2020

Docket Number: NN-19411-18, NN-19410-18

Judge: Honorable Judge Jaqueline Williams

Subject (& DOB): Joe Palomino (03/15/2004)
Margaret Malek (10/29/2014)

Respondent (& DOB): Robert Malek (04/06/1969)

Petitioner (& DOB):

Honorable Judge Jacqueline Williams,

In accordance with the court’s directives, NYC Children’s is submitting an updated report for the Margaret Ingoglia case.

I WAS NEVER INCARCERATED...

Case History: CASE DISMISSED. NO PLEA . NO ACD. DISMISSED. ARRAIGNED IN 24 HOURS....

On 12/06/17, the father (Robert), was arrested for Criminal Mischief, and was charged with a felony. The father was arrested in criminal court. The mother (Margaret), is very low functioning on a cognitive level. The mother is unable to provide adequate care for their child, Margaret (3), on her own. The mother lost custody of an older child many years ago due to her inability to provide care for the child for the same reasons. Now that the father is incarcerated, the mother is currently acting as the sole caretaker of Margaret. Also, while the father was residing in the home, there was great concern for his ability to provide adequate care for Margaret (3) as well. The father has untreated mental health concerns that need to be dealt with that are currently not. Margaret (3) is currently at risk of danger and harm currently. Margaret (3) was released to the mother Margaret.

ZERO EVIDENCE

Supervised Visits/ Respondent Father Mr. Malek:

In person supervised visits have not resumed as the non-respondent mother Ms. Ingoglia will not allow the visits to occur unless the respondent father Mr. Malek submit to a Covid-19 test and test negative, which he has refused. The reason is to protect the subject child Margaret from getting
