Gratitude: The Christmas Lesson

Moral
Focus
Series

Nothing like Christmas break! Time away from school and fun filled memories with family! Let us not forget about presents - lots of them! Well, that is what Peter always looked forward to on Christmas day. How would he respond when Christmas was not as generous to him as he expected. Would he take it all in stride or would he throw the tantrum of a lifetime? Learn how his big brother Tyler, with the help of his mom and dad, teach Peter a valuable lesson about gratitude. It is a lesson we can all learn, no matter our age or the time of year.
