

PHI THETA KAPPA
HONOR SOCIETY

To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to recommend to you Bella Lamin, a member of Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society, the first honor society recognizing the academic achievement of students at associate degree-granting colleges and helping them to grow as scholars and leaders. Established in 1918, Phi Theta Kappa (PTK) has a presence on almost 1,250 college campuses in 11 nations. More than 4.3 million students have been inducted, with over 200,000 active members in the nation's colleges.

Bella was inducted into the Alpha Pi Alpha Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa while attending Guilford Technical Community College and is a member in good standing. Bella's invitation to join Phi Theta Kappa was a testament to her unwavering commitment to achieving and maintaining academic excellence at her college where she stood among the top 10% of students in the nation.

Membership in the Society reflects discipline, determination, and an innate desire to succeed. Active involvement demonstrates a commitment to servant leadership, scholarship, and fellowship. Community college students, like Bella, are fearless learners, endlessly adaptable, and remarkably determined. They are the dreamers and the doers. As a member of Phi Theta Kappa, Bella exemplifies the best of what community colleges have to offer.

We applaud Bella's academic achievements and look forward to witnessing her accomplishments in the future.

Sincerely,

Lynn Tincher-Ladner, Ph.D.
