v.

JARED POLIS (Governor of Colorado) et al.,
Defendants.

MOTION TO EXPAND TIME TO FILE A RESPONSE OR OBJECTION

The Plaintiff, _____, pro-se herewith moves the Court to expand the time to file a response or objection to the current outstanding: (CHECK ONE)

☐ Motion to Dismiss DOC# _____

DOCUMENT NO.

☐ ORDER of the Court DOC# _____

DOCUMENT NO.

☐ Recommendation of the Magistrate DOC# _____

DOCUMENT NO.

☐ Other _____

DOCUMENT NEEDING RESPONSE OR OBJECTION

The Plaintiff moves the Court to expand the time to respond or object by: (CHECK ONE)

☐ 30 days ☐ 60 days ☐ Other _____ until: _____
TIME SOUGHT WRITE DEADLINE DATE HERE

And for cause he states as follows:

1. Plaintiff is in possession of _____ dated _____
DOC NEEDING RESP. OR OBJ. TITLE FILE DATE

A timely response is filed within 21 days of a Motion to Dismiss (FRCP 15(a)); within 14 days of a Magistrate's Recommendation (28 USC §636(b)(1)) for objections;
or other deadline prescribed by rule or statute.

2. The Plaintiff is a prisoner held by the State of Colorado in the Colorado Department of Corrections. He has no formal legal training and limited resources.
Acting pro-se, his pleadings are entitled to liberal construction so as to do substantial justice. Erickson v. Pardus, 551 U.S. 89, 94 (2007)

3. This Motion to Expand Time to file a Response or Objection is timely filed.

4. The Plaintiff requires additional time to research the premises for his response or objection, and to prepare the document. The facts of the case and the issues presented are complex. Incarcerated, the Plaintiff will need to obtain access to a law library, or otherwise access limited resources. An expansion of time is both reasonable and just. FRCP 6.

For good cause shown, Plaintiff prays the Court expand the time to file his response or objection as outlined above, and any further relief the Court may deem just.
