Resource Staffing Support – Information Technology

Lone Star Staffing Solutions specializes in Information Technology Staffing with a proven track record of helping our clients achieve their workforce staffing goals. With over 20 years of industry experience, we understand the skillsets, work attributes, and personal qualities required to meet the needs of today's Information Technology applications.

Lone Star Staffing Solutions has direct access to national, collaborative networks of laser focused, industry trained professional who can respond quickly to meet the specific needs of your project and business.

- Business Intelligence (Big Data, ETL, Reporting)
- Software and Cloud based ERP Developers
- Database Architecture and Administration
- Project and Portfolio Management
- Systems and Business Analysts
- Data Security

Lone Star Staffing Solutions' extensive resource screening and vetting process provides our clients with the certainty that they will be provided with the most skilled and reliable candidates. By listening and responding to the needs of our clients and candidates, we deliver productivity from day one.

Project Staffing Samples (Information Technology)

- Big data engineers communicate with business users and data scientists replacing Channel Partner
- PM Software Integration and Customization
- ERP and mobile work order system transition
- Data Security Analysts across all aspects
- Transition Management-Operations
- Transition Management- Systems