To Whom it May Concern:

Richard Halpern presented the workshop "Screen Time! What's Good, Bad, or Too Much? Strategies for Plugging into Healthy Technology" at the PCPO Early Childhood Conference on March 3, 2018.

Richard's presentation was very well-received. Thirty-eight participants attended his workshop, and a remarkable 32 evaluations were returned. The majority of respondents rated his presentation positively, as demonstrated in the summary below:

	1 Disagree	2	3 Neutral	4	5 Agree
This workshop was accurately represented in the brochure.				3	27
The information presented was easy to understand.			1	2	27
I learned something important.				6	24
The speaker achieved the objectives stated in workshop description.			1	3	26
If I had the chance to do it over again, I would register for this workshop.			2	2	25
This workshop allowed adequate time for questions and answers.	2	3	5	11	9

When asked what the presenter did well, respondents praised Richard for both his personality and his informative presentation. A sampling of feedback is listed below:

- Personable, informative, experienced
- Was self aware and engaging
- Very knowledgeable
- Very well spoken and seemed comfortable
- Was empathetic + non-judgmental
- Great handouts, good use of media examples
- I think he provided good age-appropriate info
- Provided a balanced view of a very touchy subject without judgment

The majority of suggestions for improvement simply stated that respondents wished the class could be longer.

I would highly recommend Richard as a presenter and look forward to working with him in the future.

Sincerely,
 Kimberly Peterson
