

Your Health Rights & Responsibilities

DID YOU KNOW?

Anything you say about sex, drugs, and your personal feelings is confidential. There are some exceptions, so ask your doctor about confidentiality rules.

As a teen, you have the right to:

- › Be treated with respect.
- › Be given honest and complete health information.
- › Ask questions.
- › Know how my health insurance and billing process works.
- › Be able to look at my medical records.
- › Ask for any of my family, friends, or partners to come into the exam room with me.
- › See my doctor without my parent/guardian in the exam room.

*When I have questions,
I will ASK!*

I have the RESPONSIBILITY to:

- › Give honest information and let my doctor know if my health changes.
- › Follow the plan that I choose with my doctor or nurse, and tell them if I choose to change my plan.
- › Treat staff, other patients, and the office with respect.
- › Be on time for my appointments and call if I need to cancel or change an appointment.

*When I have questions,
I will SPEAK UP!*
