

Adam R. Johnson, DPM

Position/Title:

Section Chief, Podiatry Division, Minneapolis VAMC

Adam R Johnson, DPM, FFPM RCPS(Glasg) is currently the Section Chief of the Podiatry Division at the Minneapolis VAMC. He also serves as the Chair of the PAVE Committee for the Minneapolis VAMC. Dr. Johnson joined the Minneapolis VAMC in 2020, initially serving as a Staff Podiatrist. Since that time he has worked to develop and grow the Podiatry Division, which previously was part of the Orthopedics Division, into its own separate department, increase the division's scope of practice and become Section Chief. Minneapolis continues to expand its PAVE program and advance limb salvage efforts under the guidance of Dr. Johnson.

Career Highlights:

Fellow Faculty in Podiatric Medicine, Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow:

2024-Present

Section Chief, Podiatry Division, Minneapolis VAMC: 2023-Present

President, American Board of Podiatric Medicine: 2023-Present
Chief of Medical Staff, Sanford Health of Northern Minnesota: 2019-2020
Medical Director, Center for Wound Healing, Hennepin County Medical Center: 2011-2014

Education:

Hennepin County Medical Center, Minneapolis, MN: 2008-2011

College of Podiatric Medicine and Surgery, Des Moines University: 2004-2008