

Position/Title: Podiatric Medical Director Podiatry Service
Specialty Care Services, VACO

Jeffrey M. Robbins, DPM is a graduate of the Kent State University College of Podiatric Medicine (formerly Ohio College of Podiatric Medicine) in Cleveland Ohio where he is an Adjunct Clinical Professor and a Clinical Assistant Professor at the Case Western Reserve University School of Medicine. Dr Robbins has been the Director of the Veterans Health Administration Headquarters Podiatry Services since 1997. His responsibilities as Director include writing national policy, program development and oversight of podiatry services and podiatry residency and fellowship programs. Dr Robbins is also the Director of the Prevention of Amputation in Veterans Everywhere (PAVE) oversight committee for VHA.

CAREER CHRONOLOGY:

Podiatric Medical Director, Podiatric Services, Specialty Care Program Office, Department of Veterans Affairs Central Office August 1997 - Present

Chief of Podiatry Section, V.A. Medical Center, Cleveland, Ohio April 1992 - 2019

Professor of Podiatric Medicine, Kent State University College of Podiatric Medicine (formerly Ohio College of Podiatric Medicine) 1991 – 2015

Adjunct Clinical Professor, Kent State University College of Podiatric Medicine 2015 - Present

Clinical Assistant Professor Case Western Reserve University School of Medicine 2007 – Present

Director – Prevention of Amputation in Veterans Everywhere (PAVE) Oversight Committee, VHA Central Office Washington DC, VHA Directive 2006-050

EDUCATION:

Ohio State University, Columbus OH Zoology June 1972

Ohio College of Podiatric Medicine Cleveland Ohio Podiatric Medicine May 1976 DPM

Residency:

St. Luke's and Children's Med, Cnt. Philadelphia PA Podiatric Surgery June 1977 Resident