

Richard J. Robinson DPM

Dr. Robinson's career spans 37 years, starting with graduation from the California College of Podiatric Medicine in 1986.

Following residency in Long Beach, CA, he was in private practice for 9 years in Santa Paula, CA, serving a primarily Spanish-speaking clientele. He then spent 3 years working for Kaiser Permanente in Woodland Hills, CA before joining the Indian Health Service in 2002.

After a 2+ year start-up stint at Gallup Indian Medical Center, he then relocated to Pinetop, AZ where he has practiced for the past 21 years serving the White Mountain Apache Tribe at Whiteriver Indian Hospital.

He has served as president of the Ventura County Podiatric Medical Association, and was Chief Clinical Consultant for podiatry in the I.H.S., where he helped organize and implement Title 38 pay for podiatrists.

In his free time, he has performed stand-up comedy, and is currently a standing cast member of The Improvizers, a Phoenix-based improv comedy troupe. He also enjoys biking, hiking, tennis, and skiing, and is a licensed private pilot as well.
