Ram Janmabhoomi Temple

Begin your journey at the epicenter of Ayodhya's spiritual legacy – the Ram Janmabhoomi Temple. Believed to be the birthplace of Lord Rama, this site holds immense significance. Witness the grandeur of the temple and the sanctum sanctorum where Lord Rama is said to have been born.

Hanuman Garhi

Hanuman Garhi temple is dedicated to Lord Hanuman, located atop a hill. The climb offers panoramic views of Ayodhya, and the temple itself is a hub of devotion. Take in the serenity and connect with the spiritual energy that permeates the surroundings. It is said that your Ayodhya visit is only fruitful if you pray to Lord Hanuman at this temple.

Kanak Bhawan

Kanak Bhawan is a temple dedicated to Lord Rama and his consort Sita. The temple is known for its unique deity of Lord Rama holding a golden umbrella. The legend associated with this temple, which says that this palace was a gift to the newlyweds Ram-Sita from Queen Kaikeyi, adds a fascinating layer to Ayodhya's rich collection of stories.

Dashrath Mahal

Chakravarti Mahraj Dashrath Mahal, a unique structure dedicated to King Dashrath, Lord Rama's father. The architectural details and the surrounding gardens make it a place of cultural significance.

Treta Ke Thakur

Treta Ke Thakur, a temple is dedicated to Lord Rama. It is believed that Lord Ram performed Ashwamedh Yagya at this spot, creating a unique connection to the ancient tales.

Guptar Ghat

Guptar Ghat - Spend your evening at Guptar Ghat, a tranquil spot on the banks of the Sarayu River. According to the tales of the city, this is the bank where Lord Rama had taken his 'jal samadhi' to leave the earth and go back to his original abode 'Vaikunta Dham'. The serene atmosphere makes it an ideal place for contemplation and spending time with your family and loved ones.

Ramkot Fort

Explore Ramkot Fort, situated on the banks of the Sarayu River. While the fort itself has historical significance, the view of the river and the city from here is breathtaking. Spend some time contemplating the confluence of history and spirituality.

Ram Ki Padi

End your day with a serene walk beside Ram ki Padi and feel the cool, spiritual air of this beautiful town. You will feel rejuvenated for the coming day.

Check-out from the hotel after breakfast at the hotel and
