

TILGA ART FUND

Calls For Application:

2022 Tilga Art Fund

SOUTH AFRICA EDITION

Application Deadline:

May 20, 2022

ABOUT THE GRANT:

Tilga Art Fund is now accepting applications. Applicants are invited to submit proposals as individuals or as groups across a variety of creative disciplines that include photography, painting, sculpture, illustration or multidisciplinary arts. A one time grant of $1,500 is awarded to each of four selected artists who demonstrate real promise and a drive to excel as artists. The grant is intended to support early career artists in developing their practice through any project of their choosing.

TO APPLY, PLEASE SUBMIT THE FOLLOWING:

1. A portfolio PDF of works (images should not exceed 10MB and videos should not exceed 5 mins)
2. A CV or Resume
3. One reference letter from tutors, artists and/or art professionals
4. All required documents should be sent directly to artfund@tilgallc.net

WHO IS IT FOR?

- Applicants must be of South African descent and currently living/working in South Africa
- Practices in visual arts, photography, sculpture, digital art or illustration.
- Must be between the ages of 18-30

ABOUT TILGA FUND FOR THE ARTS

The Fund is created by Wally Bakare to support and foster criticality, broaden artistic practice and engage new and exciting modes of art-making among young contemporary African artists

The South Africa edition of the Fund is supported by Chef Nti, Victor Dlamini and Julie Taylor of Guns & Rain Gallery as judges

FOR INQUIRIES,
Please contact

artfund@tilgallc.net
or visit www.tilgallc.com