Hazleton Art League Hosts Bob McCormick Exhibition: "Reclamation: From Coal Dust to Hope"

This December and January, the Hazleton Art League (HAL) is proud to present an exhibition entitled Bob McCormick, Reclamation: From Coal Dust to Hope. For over 75 years, HAL has been a cornerstone of the arts in Hazleton, a city historically known for its coal mining, factories, and distribution centers rather than its artistic endeavors.

For those unfamiliar with Hazleton, the heart of its downtown features the Hayden Family Center for the Arts at 31 West Broad Street. Originally built in 1909 as a bank, the building was touted by its creators as the "first modern fireproof building to be erected in the central coal fields." (Over a century later, this claim seems to hold true, as the building has remained intact and untouched by fire.) In 2019, the structure underwent a complete transformation into a vibrant arts center, retaining only the massive vault in the main gallery as a reminder of its banking past.

Every first Friday of the month, the Art League hosts an opening for a new gallery exhibition. The current Bob McCormick exhibition is particularly meaningful for the region, as it draws inspiration from the artist's experiences growing up in the Anthracite Coal Region. The exhibition runs from Friday, December 6, 2024, through Sunday, January 26, 2025, offering visitors a chance to explore works that bridge the area's industrial past and its artistic future.

HAL is a welcoming space for all ages. Children delight in classes and the popular summer art camp, which will run from June 16 through August 15. Longtime members, some of whom have been taking classes for decades, also enjoy HAL's creative opportunities and community atmosphere.

If you're interested in supporting the Art League, memberships are affordable and offer great value. Individual memberships cost $30 annually, while children under 18 and college students can join for just $15. Family memberships are available for $60, and Patrons can contribute $200. Corporate memberships, priced at $500, include benefits such as 10 free memberships for employees and the option to borrow artwork from the Art League's permanent collection.

Visitors are always welcome at HAL, free of charge. Operating hours are Tuesday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Saturday and Sunday from 1 to 4 p.m. The Art League is closed on Mondays and holidays.

Hazleton's rich history as "The Power City," a title earned after Thomas Edison operated one of the first electric power plants there in 1884, serves as a reminder of the area's innovative spirit. HAL continues this tradition by bringing creative energy and inspiration to the community.

Make time this winter to visit the Hazleton Art League, experience the powerful work of Bob McCormick, and explore how the arts can transform the legacy of coal dust into a vision of hope.

Merry Christmas

Letter from the Editors

Hello All! How's the Christmas shopping going? Ugh!!!! I know, its crazy. I am getting closer to the finish line. Now I am thinking about baking. Do I want to make cookies or maybe some nut roll?

Due to Christmas, we are publishing on the 11th and 18th this month. We will then be back to our bi-weekly schedule and regular page amount for the new year.

As always, if you have any ideas, stories, recipes, photos etc., that you would like to submit for "The Anthracite Post", send us an email, text or give us a call.

Cold Weather Beer Styles

The cold weather is here, and that means swapping out light lagers for beers that bring a cozy, warm feeling with every sip. If your beer doesn't feel like it could warm an Antarctica scientist, you need to find a more robust beer for the next few months. So, to help you out, here are some great cold-weather beer styles:

1. Stouts and Porters

These are the staples of winter beer. Thick, creamy, and often flavored with chocolate or coffee. Don't worry if you spill some on your sweater, you'll just smell like a candy bar or a café.

2. Barleywines

This style is perfect for when it's cold outside and you want to forget how much you spent buying gifts this season. Strong, rich, and slightly fruity, barleywines usually pack enough of a "punch" to keep you warm without a fireplace.

4. Winter Warmers

These seasonal beers are brewed with spices like cinnamon and nutmeg, making them the liquid equivalent to those cheesy Christmas movies so many people binge around the holidays. They are warm, festive, and you don't want anything to do with them once the cold weather is gone.

Eckley Miners' Village Moving Forward with Overnight Lodging, Research Center

By State Sen. Dave Argall (R-Schuylkill/Carbon/Luzerne)

If you want to learn more about how our parents and grandparents who worked in the coal mines lived in the days when coal was king, there are few better places to visit than Eckley Miners' Village – the last remaining authentic 19th century company mining town.

Exciting news was announced last week – Eckley is moving forward with the adaptation of several existing, historic homes of coal miners into a research center and overnight lodging for visitors. This project is part of an ongoing effort to revitalize Eckley by expanding the exhibits and activities offered at the village.

K-12 students, local educators, and visitors will be able to learn more about the history of the village and the anthracite coal region through the educational programs that will be offered at the new research center. Unique overnight accommodations are also much needed for visitors to White Haven, Jim Thorpe, and beyond.

I look forward to continuing to support their plans!

The Winter season brings cold and inclement weather here in Northeast Pennsylvania, so as a driver of a vehicle, we have an additional responsibility – clearing off the snow and ice! Currently, Title 75 of the Pennsylvania Vehicle Code, Section 4524; Windshield Obstructions and Wipers, explains that drivers must maintain a clear, unobstructed view through the front windshield, which includes snow and ice. Also, from Title 75 of the Pennsylvania Vehicle Code, Section 3721; Snow and Ice, states that a driver of a motor vehicle or motor carrier vehicle being operated on a highway of this Commonwealth shall make reasonable efforts to remove accumulated ice or snow from the motor vehicle or motor carrier vehicle, including the hood, trunk and roof of the motor vehicle or motor carrier vehicle, within 24 hours after the cessation of the falling snow or ice. Violating this section, regardless of whether any snow or ice dislodged from the vehicle is subject to a fine of $50 for each offense. If snow or ice falls from a moving vehicle and strikes another vehicle or pedestrian causing death or serious bodily injury, the Operator shall be subject to a fine of not less than $200 nor more than $1,000 for each offense.

Snow and ice dislodging from a vehicle whether traveling at high or low speeds, can cause a great amount of damage to a vehicle and serious injuries to the people within that vehicle. Take some extra time and clean off the entire vehicle, you will be glad you did. Safe travels!

Deadline Nears for Property Tax/Rent Rebate Program

By State Rep. Dane Watro (R-Luzerne/Schuylkill)

Older adults and Pennsylvania residents with disabilities have until Dec. 31 to apply for the state's 2023 Property Tax/Rent Rebate program. Remember, assistance through my district offices in Hazleton and Mahanoy City is always free. You need not pay a private firm to help with the application.

Income limits increased this year to $45,000 for both homeowners and renters, so if you were earning too much to qualify before, you may be eligible now. Remember to exclude 50% of Social Security when determining your income. The maximum rebate also increased to $1,000.

The program is open to residents age 65 years and older; widows and widowers 50 years and older; and people with disabilities 18 years and older.

Visit www.pa.gov/en/agencies/revenue.html for additional information or to apply online or contact one of my offices for assistance. The 2024 Property Tax/Rent Rebate program will open for applications in mid- to late January.

Junior Leadership Hazleton Shares Christmas Fun with Helping Hands

Children from the Helping Hands Society in Hazleton shared the holiday spirit with some students from the JLH Class of 2024-25 who planned and held a Christmas Party for them on December 5th. The JLH project team provided the kids with a beautiful snowball for their tree, tree art, delicious treats and Christmas stories and songs.

Mike Dougherty, JLH Program Coordinator explains, "This was the last in a series of three community service projects completed by the 2024-25 class. Community service has been a part of the program since its inception, so class members can practice the skills they are learning in monthly sessions. All learn the importance of helping others."

Standing, L-R LH Project team Kelly Reiner, Darren Paulino, Noemi Taveras Garcia, Shaniece Brown, Natalie Verbonitz, Eliesel Lazala Gomez (Santa), Roosivelt Fernandez, Margaret Zeiler and Elainel Morel shared the joy of Christmas with some of the children at Head Start-Hazleton on Carson Street.

It was a Christmas pajama party with no grinch in sight as JLH students and Head Start children celebrated Christmas together on Wednesday, December 4th at Hazleton Head Start. The JLH team visited all five classrooms and children sat on Santa's lap for a photo and let him know their Christmas wishes. Everyone enjoyed Christmas music as the children were given Christmas pictures to color, cards, and plenty of snacks and treats.

A Veterans Journal #94

By Joseph Barna • Freeland
USMC, Korea 1952-1953

Mr. Barna is a 5-time National Gold Medal Winning Author in the Annual Veteran's Administration Creative Arts Festival. In the competition, he is judged against thousands of entries from the 140 V.A. Facilities nationwide. In 2020, Joe made his mark on the competition by winning two Gold Medals in the same year. Follows is the first of these Gold-Medal winner, "A Lost Friend".

A Lost Friend

I lost a friend, a friend I wished I had met years earlier. His name was Tony. I had driven by his home, hundreds of times. I had seen him sitting on his porch, reading, listening to a radio, or just talking to his wonderful wife Janet, his grandchildren, or one of his many friends.

Friendship is more than just a word. It is a feeling that comes from inside you. It is this feeling that you want to share with another. I felt this feeling, this bond, when I met Tony. It started with a simple "Hello. How are you doing?" But it was the beginning of our friendship.

They say, if you have only one true friend, that you are a rich man. Tony made many millionaires. He was always there to help anyone who needed help. Tony was always positive. He never had a negative word to say. Talking with him made it possible for me to let the past behind and to look ahead for better things to come.

Tony fought a long battle with the cancer. The illness was detected late, so his fight was uphill from the start. Tony's voice got softer, his body thinner, and I know he must have been in pain. But he never showed it. I only wish that I could have shared some of his pain.

A fishing buddy and I usually take two fishing trips to a favorite lake in Canada every spring and fall. As things turned out, our reservations fell while Tony was in his last days. The evening before I left, I spent some time with him. I sat beside his bed and he asked me to hold his hand. After an hour or so, I said good night and left for the evening. Little did I know, that would be the last time I would see Tony alive. While I was in Canada, Tony passed away. Another friend of mine, was able to contact the owner of the cabins and get the word to me that

Tony had died. My fishing buddy of 50 years, did not hesitate and asked "I guess you want to get home?" The next morning, we drove the 300 miles back to Pennsylvania. On the way home, I somehow wrote down these words that I was honored to say at Tony's funeral service.

Any child could never find a better father or grandfather, no girl could ever find a more perfect husband, and I could never have found a better friend. I will always remember the times I spent talking to him on that porch or when we went for a cup of coffee. As we talked, I found him never to give up hope. He was as brave as anyone I have ever met.

Tony was in the Navy, and I was in the Marines. We would often joke about that. I knew Tony was a Navy man, but only found out that he was wounded in action near the end of his life. I doubt if many others knew this fact about him. He kept this part of his life to himself. After finding this out, my love and respect for him grew even more.

We still had so much to talk about on that porch. I hope and pray that time will come later.

Tony, you never did, and never will walk alone. Save a place for me on that porch in heaven.

Joe is the author of "God Makes Angels and Navy Corpsmen: A Korean War Veteran's Memories of the War and Life". The book can be purchased on Amazon.com or directly from the author.
