FOUNDERS WORK EXPERIENCE

EARLY CHILDHOOD

2001 - PRESENT

Background includes Early Childhood Education, Child Development K-12 Education and Special Education

HOME-BASED PROGRAMING

2009 -PRESENT

Liberated Learning Pedagogy.Children learn best when well-being, connection, and autonomy are a part of the curriculum.

ADVOCACY

2020 - PRESENT

Supporting the rights of all children to think, feel, act and be as a means of collective liberation still and video documentation is used for continuous learning as well as for purposes of advocacy.

PHOTOGRAPHY

LEARNING

The children are the curriculum and their well-being, connection, safety, and growth are the only objectives.

WRITING

Is the way that I advocate for the rights of children. I will often use their daily adventures, but never violate their privacy.

HOW IT WORKS

Fill out the application and return it to theplaylabfoundation@gmail.com Once confirmation is received, we will begin the intake process to get your crew member clubhouse ready! Thank you for choosing to honor children and childhood.

Questions :

1. The Play Lab participates in the 1000 Hours outside movement. This means that we go outside all year long. Is this something that you are comfortable with?

Yes

No

2. Family involvement is a high priority at Kidcrwadventures. Enrolled families volunteer for events, welcome me in for home visits and participate in seasonal family fun experiences.. Is this an expectation you're receptive to?

Yes

No

3. Lab fact: all clothes are play clothes! We encourage sensory rich, often messy process art and creativity. Sometimes your child may come home with paint on their clothes or marker on their body. Will this pose a problem for you?
