Retirement of Rev. James Clark

Greetings

Reverend James Clarke has served the congregation at Copper Cliff United Church for the past 21 years. Unfortunately for us, James has decided it is his time to retire.

James and Heather are relocating to the Cambridge area where Heather has been working for the last year or so.

Considering the times we are in, it is impossible to organize an event suitable to the occasion. So we have planned and confirmed a drive by type of event.

We invite you to join us.

Date: Saturday, 29th May 2021

Time: 2:00 - 3:30 pm

Location: Copper Cliff United Church

26 Park Street, Copper Cliff

The event will deviate some from what we consider normal practice for a drive by, we will not be congregating at a meeting point and doing a drive-by.

But rather:

Folks are asked to come by the Church between 2 pm and 3:30 pm.

With staggered attendance, this will give folks a chance to stop and share a few words with James. Thus avoiding a congestion of traffic and horn honking.

We ask that, when attending, folks approach the church from Godfrey drive so that they can stop just in front of the church to share their time with James.

If there is a lineup of traffic on Park Street, please be patient -

And, yes we do expect there will be some pedestrian traffic.

Thank you

Resource for National Indigenous People's Day

“Apology to Action: Reflections on the thirty-fifth anniversary” is a short video prepared by the Manitou Intentional Learning Community that revisits the First Apology made to Indigenous People by the United Church of Canada in August, 1986, during the 31st General Council, held in Sudbury, Ontario. The video recounts a brief history of that event, reminds us of the words spoken by those who offered and received the Apology, challenges us to consider our commitment to reconciliation and calls us to act so that the words spoken that day can truly become “words of action and sincerity.” (Edith Memnook)

The video features reflections from Lisa Blais (Chair) and Maxine McVey from the Canadian Shield Right Relations Resource Team and the Very Reverend Jordan Cantwell, former Moderator of The United Church of Canada.

The video is approximately 15 minutes long and is suitable for inclusion in worship services, especially on June 20, 2021, to mark National Indigenous People's Day, and to spark discussion of how we, as people of faith, can live out this Apology.

It will be available for download on June 5th, 2021 – stay tuned for details on this.

This video is dedicated to the Very Reverend Stan McKay, whose presentation to the Manitou Intentional Learning Community in April 2021 ignited this project.
