

Terms and Conditions

Logos Copy provides copywriting and related content services for Christian organisations or individuals

Each project will have its own agreed-upon scope, timeline and price. Anything not included in that agreement isn't automatically included, but we seek to be flexible where possible.

Where "unlimited" appears in marketing language, it refers to a fair and reasonable use level, agreed between us.

1. Our Responsibilities

We agree to:

- respond to requests within 5 working days
 - deliver a consistent high-quality standard of copywriting
 - deliver unlimited copywriting needs

2. Your Responsibilities

You agree to:

- provide clear and accurate information,
 - review drafts promptly,
 - use our work legally and appropriately.

3. Payment & Refunds

All fees and payment terms will be clearly stated before work begins.

Work is generally non-refundable once started, though we'll always try to resolve issues quickly and professionally.

4. Intellectual Property

Once the project is fully paid for, you receive the rights to use the final content for the agreed purpose.

Drafts, unused concepts and our underlying processes remain ours.

5. Limits of the Service

We aim to provide high-quality work, but we can't guarantee any specific business outcome (such as performance increases, SEO rankings, or user engagement). Our total liability will never exceed the amount paid for the specific project.

6. Changes & Updates

We may update these Terms occasionally. The most recent version will always be available on the website.

7. Governing Law

These Terms are governed by the laws of England & Wales.
