

MELLONY LEDO

EMERGING FASHION CREATIVE

Editorial - Styling - Runway

MY JOURNEY

ABOUT ME

For me, fashion is where storytelling and creativity come together. I'm inspired by vintage fashion, timeless elegance, and the challenge of giving classic ideas a modern perspective. Through editorial styling, runway, and creative collaborations, I've discovered a passion for bringing ideas to life.

I'm still at the beginning of my journey, and that's what I love most. Every experience has taught me something new, and I'm excited to continue learning, creating, and growing within the fashion industry.

VOGUE SUMMER SCHOOL

EDITORIAL PROJECT

Summer 2025

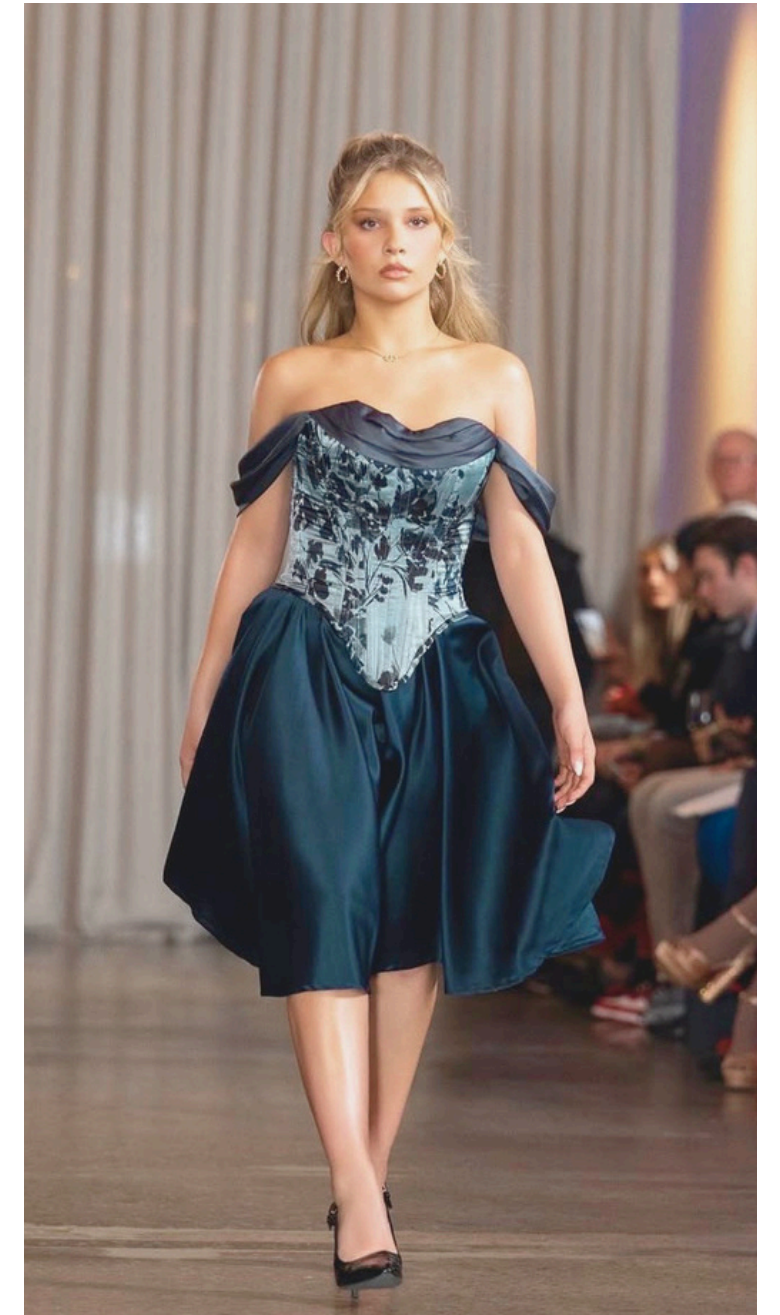

As part of the Vogue Summer School Fashion Styling program, my team, and I conceptualized, styled, and produced an editorial fashion story from initial concept through final presentation.

My role included contributing to the concept, styling looks, selecting accessories, and collaborating on the visual storytelling and overall creative direction.
