

My Own Story

It's time to write your own story! This template has all handy reminders of story elements to help you get started.

Add elements, characters and speech bubbles to create an engaging story. Once you're done designing and writing, delete the instructional texts, and the resource and how-to pages.

Click the Preview button to flip through and review the pages. After that, your book is ready to print, share, or download.

Happy writing!

Can you come up with an engaging title that hooks the readers immediately?

Title of your story

CHARACTERIZATION

Create memorable characters

Name of the Main Character

Character's
Problem

Physical Description of the Character

How did the character solve the problem?

Will there be a change in the character over time?
How will the
character change
over time?

Add your notes here:

CHARACTERS:

- Name three characters involved in the story.
- What are their personality traits?
- How do they look?

Hint: The use of adjectives when describing a character can help them come to life in the reader's mind!

Add your notes here:

POINT OF VIEW:

- Who is telling the story?
- What other points of view could this story be told with?

Add your notes here:

SETTING:

- When and where do you think the story happens?
- How does the location and time change during the plot development?

Add your notes here:

CONFLICT:

- What are the problems that happen in the story?
- How does the conflict revealed in the story?

Add your notes here:

STORY MOUNTAIN

Before you start writing your story, write a one-sentence outline for the plot development.

The Beginning
(write here)

The Build Up
(write here)

The Problem
(write here)

The Resolution
(write here)

The Ending
(write here)

Write the plot here:

THEME:

- What is the message you want to convey to the readers?
- What is the lesson or idea in the story that is similar to real life?

Add your notes here:

Ensure that the entirety of your story has a clear
beginning, middle, and end.

Happy Writing!

STORY TIME

As you complete the story, do not forget to add visuals using Canva elements.

Once upon a time there was a who

Add text here

Add text here

One day _____

At first _____

Add text here

After a while, however

Then,

.....

.....

.....

Add text here

Finally,

.....

.....

.....

Add text here

From then on

Add text here

Resource Page

