

Lovedays by Lisa

Ideas, info & inspiration for your Loveday!

Hello and welcome to Issue #2 of my collection of entertainment and enlightenment on all things weddings!

I really wanted to get this issue out sooner but Feb, March & April were incredibly BUSY! (And magical, of course!)

As I wind down for a little break over winter, I've got time to share some more >>>>>>>>> for your lovedays.

Info + Tips

Can you believe I have married 81 couples in 2023/24?! How lucky am I? Very, very lucky.

I can't wait for it to be YOUR loveday, or if you are one of my Friendors, to hang out with YOU again! Now let's get stuck in!

In this Issue:

- Who goes 1st
- Lisa Loves
- Creation Corner
- Look back at 2023/24
- Who is your MC?
- Trends & more

Who goes first?!

There are no rules about who goes first for your.... I Do - Vows - Rings
YOU DECIDE!

To help you decide, think about...

Are you nervous or emotional?

Do you just want to "get it over with"?

Do you want to savour every moment?

And if you can't decide in advance...

We can do this OR Make it more fun!

- I can mix it up - one of you first for I Do, the other for Vows.
- I decide and just spring it on you when we get to it!
- Ask you then & there "who wants to go first?!"

Wedding Music Perth

Mitchell
Martin
Musician
DJ & MC

Mitchell's Top Tip: If you have specific vendors have your heart set on, confirm their available dates before locking in your venue, or they may already be booked on your date! I get a lot of disappointed couples who enquire for dates I'm already booked for. I recommend - pick your month, get key vendors availability and then go to venues with a few dates in mind to try & make it work. It often leads to a lot less disappointment and helps you have your dream team of vendors at your wedding!

Little Things Events Kiera - Planner & Stylist

Lay your foundation right from the start of planning to avoid a blowout. Sit down together with your partner (perhaps over a wine!) to agree on a budget, and work through what is most important to you both.

Research and allocate your budget across all vendors you'll need so you know what you can and can't afford. Make sure to track your spend along the way so you know exactly how much you need to have saved for final balances.

Who is your RECEPTION HOST (MC)?

Options for your Reception Host:

- Friend or Family Member
- DJ
- Celebrant

Whatever you do, don't go for hidden Option 4 - No one!

You should ALWAYS have someone running the show!

An awesome Reception needs Good Vibes + Good Food & Drink + Good Music + Good Timing! So you need someone who knows what is happening and when to make that happen. You need someone confident, organised and sober! So consider your options....

FRIEND

PROS:

Cheap/Free
Knows you well

CONS:

Inexperienced
Wants to party
Might not keep on time
May not be able to fix issues that arise

DJ

PROS:

Most likely has good experience
Good vibes & confidence
Will do best to keep on time

CONS:

Can't leave the decks to deal with any issues

CELEBRANT/MC

(Doesn't have to be the person who married you)

PROS:

A pro MC gets to know you really well and create vibes, moments, games & more that suit you perfectly.

We are all over every detail, fixing any issues. We keep on time.

We stay sober!

CONS:

Extra cost (so worth it!)

Maybe you just need help for

Cocktail Hour

You know that bit in-between? You're off having photos & smooches and your DJ doesn't start til later? I'll take care of your guests, play music, collect cards, get your guest book signed, check details etc. Whatever you need.

EOFY SPECIAL (Book by end of June 2024)

$50 off Cocktail Hour Host or 10% off Reception MC. Ask me for a quote!

Content Creators

What is a CC?

Someone who captures lots of photos and videos on their device throughout your day. Candid little moments of you individually, with each other and your guests. They upload all the content to a dropbox or a USB so you can then enjoy and share it on your socials as you wish.

Amazing people I recommend:

Artificial & Preserved Florals

Long lasting florals that you can either hire or keep. Often more cost effective than fresh flowers but can compliment any fresh arrangements you have.
