Marcia K. (piano, voice)

Having just moved from the USA in August, I was happy to find two rewarding jobs, working for Key Mobile Music, and directing the Josephburg Men's Chorus. The chorus is a group of 16 men that sing a variety of music in 4-part harmony. We have two concerts coming up that might be enjoyable to musical families. Each concert includes the men's chorus, a bell choir, and a special guest. Look for our concerts on November 25, (location TBD) and December 16 at the Dow Centennial Center in Fort Saskatchewan. See our website at josephburgchoralsociety.com for more information.

Joseph L. (piano)

Joseph presented the world premiere of his original composition, Four Songs Opus 15, at the MacEwan University Canada 150 concert on October 15. Joseph and soprano Elizabeth Raycroft performed this new work to poetry of Edmontonian Arthur O.R. Thormann, from his book, "Exposed to Winds."

In addition, Joseph's Suite Maple, Opus 14 (orchestral arrangements of four iconic Canadian songs) for wind orchestra will premiere at the Edmonton Schoolboys Alumni Band on December 15. Further information on this performance can be found at schoolboysband.com
