WITH TEXAS SPORT PAC

The Quarry Golf Course & Clubhouse

Tuesday, October 7, 2025

6:30 – 9:30 PM

GUEST SPEAKERS

PAT MURRAY, CCA NATIONAL President

Pat Murray is a national advocate and leader on marine conservation issues and an active sportsman. Currently, he serves as the National President of the Coastal Conservation Association, one of the nation's largest marine resource conservation organizations. Founded in 1977, CCA has more than 125,000 members and 224 local chapters throughout the US. Murray has served in a variety of positions within the organization in his 24-year tenure, including leadership roles in state and national operations, state and federal advocacy, development fundraising and grassroots membership cultivation.

He is the publisher of TIDE magazine, one of the largest circulated coastal outdoors print magazines with a circulation of more than 100,000.

Murray's current board service includes the Congressional Sportsmen's Foundation and as Vice Chairman of Texas A&M University's Harte Research Institute which seeks scientific solutions to the challenges facing the Gulf of Mexico. He is a founding Board member of the Building Conservation Trust and Center for Sportfishing Policy, and a past Board member of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Foundation and University of Texas Marine Science Institute.
