

Walk-Thru the Old Testament

_____ years ago in the city of _____, God chose _____ people to be the _____ of the earth: _____, _____, _____ and _____. They journeyed up past the _____ and _____ Rivers, to the town of _____, where _____ died. Then they traveled down past the Sea of _____, the _____ River, and the _____ Sea to the land of _____, where _____, who had the “eyes’ of faith, had two sons, _____ and _____. Isaac had two sons, _____ and _____. Jacob had _____ sons, one of whom was named _____, who was sold into slavery into _____, where his people remained in bondage for _____ years.

After that time, God raised up a deliverer named _____, who said “Let my people go!”. Pharaoh said, “_____ way!” God sent the _____ plagues; Pharaoh said “OK”. The _____ Sea parted and the people went down to Mt. _____, where they received the Law, in 3 parts: _____, _____, and _____. They also received plans for the _____, and the priests and the Levites. They went up to Kadesh- _____, where they sent out _____ spies: ten came back and said “No way!”, two came back and said “Yes, way!” - their names were _____ and _____. But the majority ruled, and so the nation wandered in the wilderness for _____ years, eating _____ and _____, and that generation died. They traveled to the top of the _____ Sea, where Moses delivered his last 3 sermons (the book of _____) and then he died.

Joshua took over, crossed the _____ River, defeated _____ and Ai, and conquered the land, first the south and then the north. The land was divided up among the _____ tribes. Then came the period of the _____, some of whom were _____, Deborah, and _____. The last judge, _____, was also the first prophet. He crowned the first king, _____, who was followed by _____ and _____; 40, 40, 40 years a piece—all in all, 120 years of the _____ Kingdom.

Then the kingdom split: north-south, _____ - _____, 19-20, 0-8. _____ came over, conquered Israel, and scattered the people. Then _____ came, conquered Judah, and took the people into exile for _____ years.

At the end of that time, 3 men came back: _____ came back to rebuild the _____, Ezra came back to rebuild the people, and _____ came back to rebuild the _____. Then there were _____ years of silence, and finally Jesus Christ came.