

RVMS ROYAL REVIEW

MARCH - APRIL 2026

Principal's Note

Spring has arrived. God has kept His promise found in Genesis 8:22, even though it's not particularly warm yet. (...We wait for it patiently (Romans 8:25). God is the Promise Maker and the Promise Keeper. Praise Him for that. But what comes with each promise? II Corinthians 7: 1 tells us, "Since we have these promises, dear friends, let us purify ourselves from everything that contaminates body and spirit, perfecting holiness out of reverence for God." God has expectations and desires. He desires that His "kept promises" will reveal His power and love, draw us closer to Him and invite us into a victorious life lived in His power. Accept that invitation!

Preparing Spiritually for Convention

Preparing for Convention has many different aspects. There are a lot of physical actions that take place; practices, paperwork, props, scripts, outfits, and uniforms, to name a few. They can take center stage for the first few months of planning and can sometimes push the spiritual preparation to the back burner, but as convention gets closer, prayer is an essential piece to all things coming together. The students are prayed over many times throughout the days and months leading up to Convention. Prayers for hearts to be softened to hear what God has prepared for them, prayers for lives to be touched by the saving grace of Gospel, and prayers for competitions to be done well and for God's glory. A lot of work and preparation goes into Convention by many people. I have been attending Convention as a sponsor for going on 18 years and I have been blessed to work with great students and others who have come alongside me to help. God has great things for these young people! Please pray for all the students and sponsors attending convention this year.

Student Convention Memories

by Tamara Schrag

Convention was always a highlight for me! Looking back, I thank God for the 5 years I was able to attend. The rally speakers encouraged me to become more spiritually grounded and to think about the impact God wanted me to have on a lost and dying world. I enjoyed the competition aspect of things, but one of my best memories was receiving the judges' comments back my senior year. Some had been judging the same event for all 5 years and used their comments to encourage me to continue using my talents for the Lord! My Convention experience was definitely used by God to be a "greenhouse" to equip and train me for where God has led me since graduation.

Student Spotlight!

My spiritual goal for Student Convention and how that will affect my competition and social behavior.

Antonio Coz-Sica - "My spiritual goal is to glorify God with my friends while at Convention. I'm doing a lot of events with multiple friends; it is a perfect opportunity for us to glorify God together in our singing, research, sketching, acting, and so much more."

Davin Lyndaker - "My spiritual goal for Student Convention is to grow closer to God and to be open to His leading my life."

Madison Mast - "I want to be a person of integrity. I want to be honest in who I am and how I represent myself."

Eliana Roes - "My spiritual goal for Convention is to grow closer to the Lord while I am there, and create friendships with other Convention students from other schools."

Hannah Roes - "My spiritual goal for Convention is to have a Godly attitude that will influence me to do my best in all activities and interactions."

Cassidy Roggie - "My spiritual goal at Convention is to listen intently to the speaker. Last year the speaker talked about something I had been struggling with at the time. I left Convention feeling spiritually renewed and encouraged. I encourage everyone to do the same, it is so worth it! Feeling spiritually renewed and ready-to-go will help me have the correct mindset and show Jesus in my to others whom I do not know."

Sasha Staab - "My spiritual goal for Student Convention is to be a Godly example of the character of Christ. I will show good sportsmanship, and do my best in competition, as well as treat others with love, respect, and kindness."
