Hey Mom, I'm hearing that you want to talk to me and I really don't want to, not after you have disrespected me and my decisions and boundaries and called me a liar when I know I'm not lying. I'm happy here and I don't care what you think anymore, I'm going to send my school laptop, IPHONE and both chargers back when I can and when you go back to Rhode Island, I'd appreciate it if you send down some of my belonging listed below because they mean a lot to me.

- My Dice Set from Hannah and the set I got at the mall (they should both be in my duffel bag)
- My DuskShadow Costume (it should also be in my Duffel Bag)
- Faith's ashes
- My Ceramics
- My DID Dragon art piece
- The dragon drawing I have hanging up on the wall down stairs
- Really any of my sketches/drawings you can find
- My Tarot cards if you can find them
