

My Point of View

Words by: Elizabeth Rose

Music by: Elizabeth Rose, Ryan Hendrick, and Daniel Waid

Intro: D, Asus2, G

Verse 1

I'm second-guessing everything I know
Never been so distracted before
Now no matter what I do
I can't get mind off you know who
I got a long list of expectations
On second thought they're qualifications
This is somethin' I've prayed about
For so so long
I just don't want anything going wrong

Pre-Chorus

Don't wanna rush
Into a hopeless situaa-tion
But I just don't know how
He makes it look so simple

Chorus

Kindness and Gentleness
Come so easy
He's selfless and humble
And that's what I see
He's caring and kind
I think I'm losing my mind
He just seems so perfect
From my point of view

4 Bars

Instrumental: D, Gsus2, Bm7, A, D/F#, Gsus2, Bm7,A

Verse 2

It's Saturday and I'm dressed to the nines
Trying not to show
But I only care
About catching his eye
Don't wanna get my hopes up
But something is keeping them high

Pre - Chorus

Chorus

Instr. - 4 bars

Chorus 2a

Kindness and gentleness
come so easy
He's selfless and humble
And that's what I see
He's caring and kind
He has my heart, my soul, my mind
He just seems so perfect
Oh why is he so perfect
He is just so perfect
From my point of view.
