

Grand Knight's Report

Dear Brother Knights,

This past weekend, we celebrated Epiphany at church which is the official end to the Christmas season. More importantly, Epiphany is celebrated as the Baptism of Christ. Sunday morning at 10:30 mass, there was baptism during mass which gave me a chance to renew my baptismal vows. I remember very well the baptism of both of our kids. Both of which occurred in the NICU at St. Lukes Hospital because of their early entrance to the world. Suzanne and I proudly took those vows for our children just like the parents and God parents did this weekend. The vows are a great way to remind us what our promises are as baptized Catholic men.

Thanks for everything you do for our council!

Vivat Jesus

December 24th was the 4th anniversary of her passing. Mike, Kathy, & crew also put on the ‘Be the Match’ benefit in honor of Phoebe which is taking place this month on the 29th. Thank you both very much for all you do for the Knights!”
