

The journey to PICU

Stage 1: The hospital from which your child was transported

Where your child was being looked after when it was decided they needed to go to PICU.

Stage 2: The transport team

Children taken by transport to this PICU. Nurses and/or doctors are on board. Sometimes these nurses and doctors are from the Stage 1 hospital and sometimes they come from elsewhere.

Stage 3: this PICU

The paediatric intensive care unit or PICU providing specialist care for your child.
