

Behavior Policies

2018 Kansas Lions Band at Friends University

NOTE – Dr. Taylor has no doubt that students in the Kansas Lions Band can abide by these policies. If you cannot meet these expectations, DO NOT come to the Lions Band. Final decisions of rule/guideline violation and consequence will be administered by State/International Band Committee Chair (Lion Shari Neidhardt), and Dr. John W. Taylor (Friends University).

Students in violation of these Behavior Policies:

- * Will be immediately removed from the State/International Band program.
 - * Parents/guardians will be notified.
 - * Parents will immediately take the student home.
 - * Staff members will enforce these policies with “Zero Tolerance”
1. No alcohol, tobacco, non-prescription medications, or other drugs.
 2. No weapons (includes pocket knives, martial art, or other dangerous items).
 3. No fireworks (of any size, shape, or type).
 4. Offensive language, intolerant behavior, and disrespect of staff (such as talking back or rolling of the eyes) will NOT be tolerated.
 5. No physical or verbal confrontations will be tolerated.
 6. Students will not leave the dorm area other than for scheduled practices, events, and meals unless escorted by an adult staff member.
 7. Students will follow dorm floor policies and stay in their assigned rooms after lights out.
 8. Students will adhere to Friends University and Newman University policies as directed.
 9. If students drive themselves to Lions Band camp, they will be required to turn in their transportation keys to the staff during initial check-in.
 10. Clothing must be appropriate. Shirts may not be sleeveless, must cover the stomach and may not have questionable pictures or words. Shorts/pants/skirts may not be worn low, and shorts/skirts must be within 3” of the knee. If you have a question whether a clothing item is appropriate, do not bring it. If a clothing item is deemed inappropriate by the staff, the student will meet with Dr. Taylor, then be sent to his/her dorm room to change.
