Prepare to Lead as Vice District Governor; Prepare to Succeed as District Governor

While serving as a vice district governor, you will complete training and prepare to lead your district as governor. As district governor, you will implement the plan to achieve your district goals.

One of your top priorities is to stand ready to fulfill the duties of the district governor if the governor is unable to do so for any reason. Most likely, you will also have other duties as assigned by the governor and may be asked to lead one or more committees during the year.

In addition to those duties, you should dedicate time preparing to serve as district governor and complete training. It is important to understand the role of district governor and all its responsibilities well before you begin to serve.

Familiarize yourself with the Standard Form Lions District Constitution & By-Laws, the governing document of a Lions district. Refer to it often to ensure the district is governed according to the By-Laws and you understand the responsibilities of each role.

IMPORTANT: All vice district governors and district governors should ensure you have a unique email address (one not shared with another Lion) listed in your member profile. This will enable Lions International to communicate important programmatic messages directly to you.

Vice District Governor Training Programs

Prior to your term as district governor, you will spend a good portion of your time preparing to serve through training programs designed for both second and first vice district governors. These yearlong training programs are where you will learn the responsibilities of a district governor, fine-tune your leadership skills, and share best practices with your fellow leaders to help you strengthen your district and achieve your district's goals.

It is an obligation of membership to pursue all complaints, disputes or claims in accordance with the International Constitution and By-Laws and policies and procedures adopted by the International Board of Directors.
