Puppy Adoption Deposit & Purchase Agreement

Puppy prices vary based upon the characteristics of individual puppies including estimated adult size, gender, coat, and markings. Prices normally range between $1,800 and $3,200 per puppy.

When puppies become available, seller will notify purchaser in order of placement on wait list based upon date of deposit.

Purchaser will choose a puppy within 3 days of notification. If for any reason, we do not have a puppy that you want, the deposit may be transferred to the next litter. Deposit may be transferred no more than twice; at which time purchaser forfeits the deposit. Upon reservation of a priced puppy, the remainder of this agreement will be completed.

The reserved puppy will not be offered or sold to any other party unless no contact with the purchaser can be made via telephone or email. Upon selection of a puppy, purchaser agrees to provide 50% of the balance due. Purchaser may make additional payments up to 1 week before transfer of puppy. Puppies must be paid in full before they are relinquished to their new forever homes. All financial payments must have cleared. Seller accepts personal checks for deposits; final payment(s) must be via a certified bank check for the balance due. Purchaser may request use of PayPal. In this case, the seller will add fees to offset any/all PayPal charges. Tiny puppies/breeds require special care. As such, our puppies are normally 12 weeks old before they may leave our care. The timeframe is an estimate and may be lengthened based on individual puppy needs. Purchaser agrees to pay any additional fees associated with transportation/delivery of puppy including but not limited to health certificates, crating, and airline fees.
