Two Enduring Spirits

Flash was a pony that had fallen between the cracks—too small for most to ride, even for a Hackney pony, and too feral to be shown. What he needed was a person as small as he was—who had the guts and the patience to give a wild pony a chance. Then along came a little girl with a sensitive soul and a big heart. Kyla Law was just nine years old when she met Flash, and neither of them could have anticipated that their partnership would make history.

In an inspiring true story of family, faith, and perseverance, Kyla and Flash's relationship mirrors the journey we must all take in life: one of highs and lows, successes and failures—their just happens to be along a hundred-mile historic trail in the Sierra Nevada mountains—the setting for the most famous endurance race in the world. From the moment they met, to the moment they crossed the finish line, their relationship exhibits pure spirit: the human spirit, the Holy Spirit, and the fire-in-the-soul kind of spirit that helps us climb mountains and cross rivers, literally and figuratively.

This story is about a girl and her pony, and how in one amazing day they inspired an international community, as Flash became the smallest horse to ever finish the one-hundred mile, one-day Western States Trail Ride—the Tevis Cup.

"A remarkable story artfully told of highly effective parenting. You'll love Kyla, adore her pony, and cheer for her mom."
