

About Us

The Sackville and District Assistance Centre (commonly known as the Sackville Food Bank) is an entirely volunteer-run organization. We depend on the generosity of the community to pay our bills and acquire the food to meet the needs of the members of the community who are food insecure. We are governed by a volunteer board of directors, all of whom also have other Food Bank jobs and responsibilities.

Accessing the services of the Food Bank is a privilege and not a right. All volunteers and clients are expected to treat each other with respect and courtesy.

The Food Bank is not intended to meet all the grocery needs of those using it. It is intended to fill the gap left when a client's funds are depleted and they are in need of food. We hope to give each client enough food for three days.

The Sackville Food Bank operates in partnership with the Food Depot Alimentaire and Food Banks Canada.
