7 SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

10 CHARLES A. HAROLD, JR., on behalf of 11 Vulnerable Adult SHARON M. HAROLD,

12 Petitioner,

13 vs.

14 DAVID ALLEN PAICE,

15 Respondent.
16

Case No. 23-2-03980-7 KNT

SUPPLEMENTAL BRIEF IN SUPPORT OF PROTECTION ORDER FOR VULNERABLE ADULT FINANCIAL ABUSE

17 I. INTRODUCTION

18 Petitioner Charles A. Harold, Jr., on behalf of Vulnerable Adult Sharon M.
19 Harold ("Protected Party"), submits this Supplemental Brief in support of the Protection
20 Order for financial abuse of a "Vulnerable Adult" by Respondent David Allen Paice.
21 The purpose of this brief is to report newly discovered evidence involving a long-term 22 pattern and practice of criminal activity perpetrated by Respondent against the 23 Protected Party. The crime is defined by 18 U.S. Code § 2511 - Interception and 24 disclosure of wire, oral, or electronic communications and could include other federal 25 and state laws. To be perfectly clear, this constitutes a hack of Protected Party's 26 emails and personally identifiable information.

27 Respondent, Protected Party's grandson-in-law, is the acting alleged trustee of 28 Protected Party's Trust and an employee of BECU. He self-reports to be a Manager of

1 the BECU Financial Center and a BECU Systems Analyst.

2 This Protective Order rises from TEDRA Case No. 22-4-08326-1 KNT and 3 Respondent's breaching of his fiduciary duties as acting trustee since 2010, which he 4 is attempting to ratify in the TEDRA case.

5 II. STATEMENT OF FACTS

6 After being asked by Protected Party to assist her in analyzing the accounting
7 of Trust supplied to her by Respondent in October 2022, Petitioner began gathering
8 information by examining her documents, financial statements, e-mails, texts,
9 calendars, Google location history and many other sources. Protected Party's AT&T
10 phone bills reflected hundreds of phone calls and texts between Respondent,
11 Respondent's wife Briana Paice ("Briana"), and Respondent's mother-in-law Jenifer
12 Sawyer ("Jenifer"). However, while reviewing Protected Party's phones, Petitioner
13 could find no corresponding calls, emails or texts matching the corresponding AT&T 14 phone bill records.

15 A. Paraben Forensic Cell Phones Examination.

16 On February 14, 2023, Petitioner and Amy Jane Small, Petitioner's sister and 17 dual attorney-in-fact, submitted Protected Party's two cell phones to the Paraben 18 Corporation, a digital forensics company specializing in cell phone analysis. A copy of 19 the agreement between Paraben and Petitioner is attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

20 Paraben compared Protected Party's AT&T phone bill records to her cell
21 phones' hard drive sectors. Paraben found no e-mails, texts or phone call records
22 between Respondents, Briana and Jenifer on either of Protected Party's phone 23 during the corresponding timeframes expressed in the AT&T phone bills.

24 Another disturbing finding from Paraben was the timeframe of data available for 25 analysis on one of the cell phone drives. Protected Party's main phone has been in 26 continuous service since October 13, 2021. Yet, Paraben's forensic examination 27 determined that no data matching AT&T records existed on this phone for 28 Respondent, Briana and Jenifer prior to July 2022. After July 2022, there was trace

1 information involving the same parties.

2 In June 2022, as discovered in the AT&T phone records, Respondent, Brieana
3 and Jenifer bombarded Protected Party with a series of phone calls and texts which 4 resulted in Protected Party removing Amy Jane Small from her original position of 5 power of attorney for Protected Party. The spreadsheet of AT&T communications and 6 chronology of events is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.

7 AT&T phone bill documents verify messages were exchanged between these 8 parties. Additionally, an examination of Protected Party's numerous email accounts
9 found no emails from Respondent, Brieana or Jenifer. In the TEDRA proceeding, 10 Respondent stated in his declaration that he communicated with Protected Party on a 11 regular basis. This statement does not match the lack of data found on the physical 12 phones.

13 Protected Party is not sophisticated when it comes to electronic devices and 14 denies she deleted these messages, nor could she delete them to the level of 15 rendering them unrecoverable via forensic examination; however, Respondent, who is 16 a systems analyst, absolutely is capable without having access to the physical 17 electronic devices. The final report from Paraben is pending, and additional 18 examination of records is necessary to reveal further information. A preliminary report 19 is submitted herewith as Exhibit 3. This forensic examination is consistent with the 20 following new evidence as explained below.

21 B. The BECU Microsoft Exchange Server Is An Urgent Matter.

22 On March 10, 2023, Petitioner was researching information in preparation for 23 the TEDRA hearing. While looking at Protected Party's records, Petitioner noticed an 24 email address that he did not remember seeing in his previous review of files. That 25 address is ggobbi70072018@outlook.com ("Outlook email address"). Protected
26 Party's grandchildren nicknamed her "Gobbi."

27 Being familiar with Protected Party's other email addresses from Google, Yahoo
28 and others, Petitioner found this email address odd because it was a Microsoft

1 address usually accessed and managed using the Microsoft Outlook software
2 accompanying Microsoft Windows operating system.

3 Again, Protected Party is not technologically sophisticated. She usually 4 accesses her emails through simple apps on her phone, not on her laptop. Petitioner
5 found the Microsoft Outlook app on Protected Party's current phone, but it has not 6 been set up showing that it is unusable.

7 Petitioner called Protected Party to ask about this email address. She told 8 Petitioner she thought that email was set up when she bought a new computer back in 9 2021. She did not recall who set up that email address nor did she recall using it. She 10 said she seldom used the new laptop, preferring to use her phone or an older laptop, 11 and she did not know how to use the Microsoft Outlook software in her computer.

12 Petitioner asked Protected Party's permission to try and log in and access that 13 email account using his computer. She gave Petitioner permission.

14 On March 10, 2023, at approximately 10:00 a.m., Petitioner logged in to the 15 Outlook email address on his home computer using the same password Protected
16 Party has used across all her phones, emails, computers and apps for many years.
17 (This has been changed recently and this will become important as explained below.)
18 He immediately noticed that the various folders in the account were virtually empty
19 except for a few odd items. The inbox contained emails from "Microsoft OneDrive" 20 and "Microsoft account team" regarding multiple "password change" over several 21 years, ranging from July 15, 2018 to January 6, 2023. The earliest email for "Microsoft 22 OneDrive" indicated that the Outlook email address was created on that date and a 23 Microsoft One cloud storage account was created with it. This email is attached 24 hereto as Exhibit 4.

25 Petitioner checked Protected Party's online Google calendar for this time period
26 and discovered that Respondent's family visited Protected Party at her home. A copy 27 of the calendar entry is attached hereto as Exhibit 5.

28 Petitioner noticed the "Deleted items" folder was empty but inside the dialogue

1 box was a message that said, "recover items recently removed from this folder. There
2 are more items in this folder on the server. Click here to view more on the Microsoft
3 Exchange." Petitioner found this message odd because he had personal knowledge
4 Microsoft Exchange was a software program used by companies to manage its emails.
5 He had personal knowledge it could be used by employees to access company emails
6 from their private home computer. It is a commercial application which requires a 7 system administrator and network permission to join. A description of Microsoft
8 Exchange from the Microsoft website is attached hereto as Exhibit 6.

9 When Petitioner clicked on the "Click here to view more on the Microsoft
10 Exchange," he saw that the email account and data folders for the Outlook email
11 address were in essence empty and appeared to be unused. Using the Microsoft 12 "Help" function within the Outlook app, Petitioner asked how to connect to the 13 exchange server. When he did this, a dialogue box popped up displaying a login to the 14 BECU Azure tenant server.

15 Petitioner entered Protected Party's email address into the login dialogue box
16 and received a server message that the email address was incorrect. Petitioner then 17 entered Respondent's BECU email address of david.paice@becu.org. A screen shot
18 of this dialogue box is attached hereto as Exhibit 7. The BECU Microsoft Exchange 19 server accepted this email address as a valid system user, then prompted Petitioner to 20 enter the password to gain access to the BECU server. Petitioner did not attempt to 21 enter a password and closed the Outlook app. Petitioner repeated these steps while 22 recording a video on his computer. This recording is available for this Court's viewing if 23 requested.

24 Protected Party's private email address could only be connected to the BECU
25 company email server in one way and one way only. A person at BECU with BECU
26 network administrator level permissions would need to set up and authenticate
27 Protected Party's Outlook email address on the BECU Exchange server. Protected
28 Party could not do this herself because she could not create credentials on the BECU

1 network, nor did she have the knowledge base to do this. That person, based upon the 2 authentication feedback received from the popup login box from BECU Azure
3 Exchange server, was Respondent.

4 Between March 10, 2023 and March 13, 2023, Petitioner made a series of 5 screen shots of Protected Party's Outlook Exchange account to demonstrate to the 6 Court the proof of connectivity to the BECU Exchange Server and to illustrate the 7 numerous capabilities to set up rules that allow the administrator of an Outlook
8 exchange account to manipulate emails and data in a multitude of ways. These 9 screenshots are attached hereto as Exhibit 8.

10 On March 14, 2023, between 6:15 p.m. and 6:30 p.m., Petitioner sent two 11 emails to Sharon M. Harold and Amy Jane Small from Protected Party's the Outlook
12 email address in an attempt to determine if the BECU Azure server was still connected 13 to Protected Party's Outlook account. The emails went through, were delivered and 14 read receipts were received, establishing that the Protected Party's personal emails
15 were still being managed through the BECU Azure Exchange Server. These emails 16 are attached hereto as Exhibit 9.

17 Petitioner's Notes

18 The Microsoft Outlook app allows the user to add numerous email "accounts" to 19 the application and import that data. A user can use Outlook to view all their emails 20 from non-Outlook servers, like Yahoo or Gmail, all in one place at the same time using 21 just the Outlook application. When a Microsoft Exchange server is used in conjunction 22 with Microsoft Outlook, all emails reside and are sent and received on and through the 23 Exchange server.

24 In this case all of Protective Party's emails from any email application were 25 sent, received and stored on BECU's Microsoft Exchange server. Since Respondent 26 was the system administrator that placed Protected Party's Outlook email address on 27 his company BECU Exchange server, he had full access to any and all emails that 28 were saved within the Outlook application software on Protected Party's local 1 computer.

2 For example, as system administrator, Respondent could set up a rule that says
3 after an email is sent from david.paice@becu.com to ggobbi70072018@outlook.com,
4 save it, move it, or delete it, etc. The ability to set up custom rules in a Microsoft
5 Exchange server could explain why Protected Party's Outlook email address account
6 contained no emails from Respondent. These custom rules are attached as Exhibit 8.

7 The Court may wonder how this may be accomplished. As noted above,
8 Protected Party used the same password for years for all devices and online
9 application, including her banking. Respondent has admitted logging into Protected 10 Party's banking account to make deposits. (However, this is the same bank account in 11 which Respondent claimed that he had nothing to do despite having signed the 12 signature card as a joint accountholder for 12 years.)

13 Microsoft Windows technology also allows a person to connect his telephone to 14 his computer and sync data between multiple devices. Protected Party does not know 15 exactly how Respondent used his BECU Outlook Exchange server against her or what 16 data he obtained; however, this information is recoverable because Microsoft
17 maintains some system administration information about Exchange servers in the form 18 of server logs. BECU also maintains system administration logs as required by the 19 financial industry that would show, for example, when Protected Party's email address 20 was established, who created it, who connected it to the BECU server, who 21 authenticated it and, most importantly, what Protected Party's emails are saved on the 22 BECU server. Even if these emails are deleted, there should be a record of the 23 deletion.

24 In short, this email configuration set up by Respondent is the exact 25 configuration used by many hackers to access data networks using authentic system 26 credentials for the purpose of unauthorized access to network information, such as 27 email addresses, passwords and other proprietary data.

28 ///

1           C.     Additional Facts Relevant To The Freezing of Protected Party's
2                       Trust Assets Per Court Order.

3           Zelle Deposits - Respondent's investment brokers, LPL Financial, where 4 Protected Party's Trust funds are invested, were served with the Temporary Protection
5 Order on March 8, 2023. LPL Financial confirmed to Petitioner via email that LPL
6 Financial account was frozen pursuant to court order. Respondent was served with 7 the Protection Order on March 8, 2023, as reflected in the proof of service from the 8 Sheriff's office. Respondent's employer, BECU, was served with the Protection Order 9 on the same date.

10           In a series of emails between Petitioner and BECU, Petitioner put BECU on 11 notice that their Microsoft Exchange Server had been compromised by Respondent.
12 Petitioner asked BECU to acknowledge the breach and verify the BECU accounts 13 listed in the Protection Order were in fact shut down. BECU refused to verify such 14 information.

15           Suspecting that the BECU accounts listed in the Protection Order were not 16 frozen as ordered, Petitioner sent Respondent a series of deposits to some of those 17 accounts via the banking app Zelle, and Zelle confirmed that the deposits were 18 accepted. If the BECU accounts in question were frozen per the court order, Petitioner 19 expected to see the Zelle deposits rejected. However, the $1.00 deposits were 20 withdrawn from Petitioner's bank account. At the time of the filing of this brief, that 21 money is still deposited. Screen shots of the Zelle deposits are attached hereto as 22 Exhibit 10.

23           IOLTA Deposits - Petitioner and Protected Party are concerned that the Court
24 orders to freeze Protected Party's Trust assets have not been carried out. Petitioner,
25 in pro se, was unfamiliar with the various ways Respondent could be holding Protected 26 Party's Trust funds. He recently discovered that Respondent's attorney is required to 27 maintain an Interest on Lawyers' Trust Account ("IOLTA"). Petitioner and Protected
28 Party believe that Respondent has deposited a substantial amount of Protected

1 Party's Trust funds into his attorney's IOLTA. Petitioner and Protected Party
2 respectfully request the Court to compel Respondent's law firm, Lane Powell, to 3 disclose the balance of the IOLTA to Protected Party at the hearing as required under 4 the accounting of trust order herein.

5 Petitioner and Protected Party also requested that this account be frozen as 6 part of Protected Party's assets, as the Court deems appropriate under the 7 circumstances.

8 IV. LEGAL ARGUMENTS

9 A. Substantial Evidence Demonstrates that Respondent Violated 18

10 U.S.C. § 2511.

11 18 U.S.C. § 2511 states:

12 (1) Except as otherwise specifically provided in this chapter any person 13 who

14 (a) intentionally intercepts, endeavors to intercept, or procures any other 15 person to intercept or endeavor to intercept, any wire, oral, or electronic communication; or

16 * * *

17 (d) intentionally uses, or endeavors to use, the contents of any wire, 18 oral, or electronic communication, knowing or having reason to know that the information was obtained through the interception of a wire, oral, or electronic communication in violation of this subsection;

19 * * *

20 shall be punished as provided in subsection (4) or shall be subject to suit as provided in subsection (5).

21 (4)(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection or in 22 subsection (5), whoever violates subsection (1) of this section shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than five years, or both.

23 A Microsoft Exchange Server and its software is specifically designed to 24 centralize (or "intercept") and manage all emails of a specific company under one 25 managing authority who grants authentication access and creates rules and 26 permissions the users on the Exchange server are permitted to engage in while 27 sending and receiving emails. See Exhibit 6.

28 When Respondent, an employee of BECU and self-reported BECU Systems

Analyst, set up and authorized Protected Party's private email account on the BECU company email server, he did so with the knowledge and intent that as the authorizer of Protected Party's unauthorized BECU Exchange account, Protected Party's private email would be "intercepted" or received, then routed, stored and sent through the BECU email network. The BECU Exchange Server and network is used for conducting the business of a $30 billion dollar financial institution, not for sending grandma's emails to her grandson.

B. Respondent's Actions are a Violation of BECU Policy and a Serious Security Breach and are Therefore Prohibited.

Placing a private, non-business email account on the BECU Microsoft Exchange server is a violation of the BECU Electronic Use Policy and Privacy Policy because Protected Party had no online access to BECU banking apps and therefore, any data collected about her, such as her personal emails, was not granted or agreed upon and a violation of her privacy rights.

It is irrelevant if Respondent claims Protected Party gave him permission to establish her email account on the BECU Exchange server because Protected Party is not a BECU member. This violated Respondent's fiduciary duties of loyalty, transparency, accounting, etc., and unless BECU only started using computers yesterday, it is against any company's electronic use policy and internet security policies. In short, Respondent opened a door between his employer BECU and Protected Party's computer and phone and transferred data between the two systems.

Whether Respondent's transfer of data was malicious or benevolent is irrelevant because the establishment of the connection between BECU and Protected Party's networks and the transfer of any data whatsoever is prohibited by law, company security protocols, and against social policy.

IV. CONCLUSION

These new discoveries by Petitioner committed by Respondent are alarming, illegal and further demonstrates the depths to which Respondent has breached his

1 duty as a trustee. In short, Respondent was hacking Protected Party's email and 2 computer. These new findings warrant an immediate dismissal of the TEDRA case
3 because it is litigious on its face and was contrived to obfuscate Respondent's
4 malfeasance. Furthermore, Respondent should be removed as a trustee immediately.
5 These findings warrant the continuation of the Protective Order for a minimum of one 6 year and the freezing of the Respondent's IOLTA account with Lane Powell, and with 7 any other law firm Respondent may have retained in these matters before the Court.

8 One further addendum: Minutes before this brief was filed, Petitioner spoke with 9 Protected Party and asked her if she had read this brief sent to her by email.
10 Protected Party said when she opened her Google email account on her phone, she 11 received a popup notification to enter her password for her Microsoft account.
12 Protected Party said she had never seen that before, she was unable to open her 13 Gmail account and read this brief. Therefore, Petitioner read this brief to her and 14 discussed it before filing.

15 It appears that when Petitioner changed the password for Protected Party's 16 Outlook account, it affected her ability to log into her Google account because Outlook
17 could be connected to it. This is not conclusive yet and further investigation.

| 6/22/2022 9:02  | Silvia Webb of Lane Powell sends Sharon an email with a letter attached from David's attorney Aleksander Schilbach. The letter is addressed to Amy Jane (Harold) Small, Sharon's daughter. The letter states: We are writing to update you on the accountings for the Sharon M. Harold Irrevocable Trust dated November 12, 2004 ("Trust"). We have now obtained drafts of the trust accountings from the accountant and are in the process of reviewing the accountings and providing the accountant with our comments for finalizing them. We anticipate that the accountings will be completed either later this week or next week. Once we have the accountings completed, we will send the accountings to you and to those individuals authorized to receive them under California law." at the time this was sent, Lane Powell and David already knew Amy had been removed from POA that day |                            |              |              |                         |   |

| 10/3/2022 0:00  | Paul Ohainle of Lane Powell sent a letter to all beneficiaries stating in part; "Ms. Sharon M. Harold, the primary lifetime beneficiary of the Trust, has already released the Trustee for actions as disclosed in the accountings, and we have enclosed a copy of Ms. Harold's executed Release and Discharge for your information." The alternative to obtaining a Release from each of you by October 28 is for the Trustee to file a petition seeking court approval of the accountings. All costs associated with such a filing will be paid from the assets of the Trust. While the Trustee would strongly prefer not to incur these additional legal and administrative expense, we reserve the right to do so if we do not receive the fully executed Releases from all beneficiaries. We look forward to receiving your executed Releases no later than October 28, 2022. |                                  |              |              |      |   |

Phone call and text records between Protected Party (Grantor) Sharon M. Harold and Respondent (Trustee) David A. Paice, his wife Briana Paice, his mother-in-law Jenifer (Harold) Sawyer and his attorneys Lane Powell, Aleksander Schilbach and attorney Roger Gould. These records demonstrate the undue influence respondent David Paice and others have exercised over Protected Party through their series of calls and texts that correspond with major manipulated events in this case.

A Microsoft Exchange account is a work or school email account. The organization that gave you the Exchange email account is running a Microsoft Exchange Server, or is using Microsoft 365 which uses Exchange Server to provide email.

What's the name of my Exchange server?

You usually won't need to know the name of your Exchange server. If you do, contact the people who gave you the Exchange email address and ask them for the name of the Exchange server.

When you set up a mobile device, the AutoDiscover feature will find the name of your Exchange server and mailbox, and configure Outlook for you. It uses the domain name in your email address to find the server. Only if Autodiscover fails will you be asked for the name of the Exchange server. At this point, usually something isn't working correctly and you'll need to contact the people who gave you the email address. They'll tell you the name of your Exchange server and help you set up Outlook.

When you use an Exchange account, your email messages are delivered to and saved in your mailbox on the Exchange server. Your contacts and calendar are saved there, too.

When your business or school sets up their Exchange server, they choose what method your Exchange account uses to access email on the server. This will determine how your email works. Here are the possibilities - ask your business or school how your Exchange account is set up:

- Exchange ActiveSync; MAPI/HTTP are methods for accessing your Exchange email, usually from a laptop, phone, or tablet. When you access or read your email, you aren't actually downloading or storing email on your mobile device; instead you're reading it from the Exchange Server. It allows you to access your email even when you're not connected to the Internet.
- IMAP, like Exchange ActiveSync, is a method for accessing your email wherever you are, from any device. When you read an email message using IMAP, you aren't actually downloading or storing it on your computer; instead, you're reading it from the Exchange Server.

With IMAP, email in your Inbox, Deleted Items, Sent Items folders are synchronized between your device and the server. IMAP allows for limited calendar storage but does not support collaborating on a calendar with other users.

- POP email is downloaded from the Exchange Server onto your computer. Once email is downloaded to your computer, it's deleted from the server. To access the email after it's downloaded, you have to use the same computer. If you access your email from different computer or device, it will look like some of your previously downloaded messages have been deleted.

What's Cached Mode?

With an Exchange email account, you can work on your email messages even when you're not connected to the Exchange Server in your business's IT department. This is called working offline or using Cached Exchange Mode.

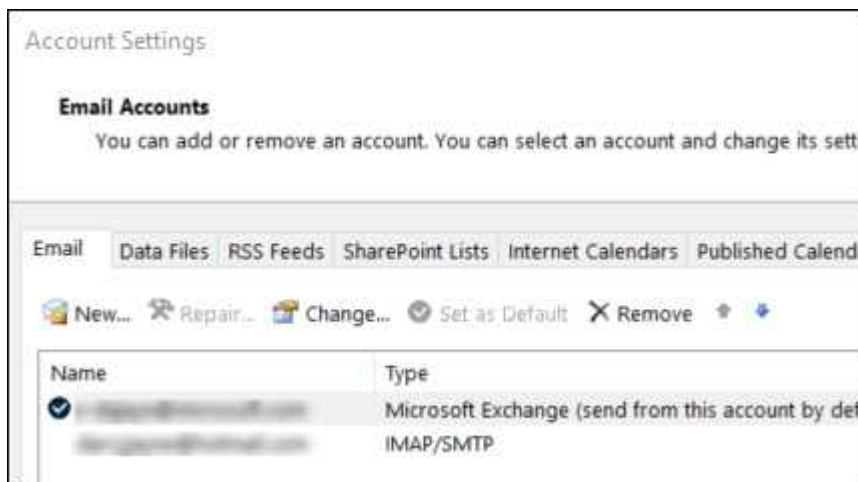

Copies of your email and calendar items are kept on your computer in an offline Outlook Data File (.ost). This file is regularly synchronized with the items on the Exchange server in your business's IT department, when you are connected to it. It's an exact copy of your mailbox on your Exchange server.

Because your data remains on your business's Exchange Server, you can re-create this offline Outlook Data File (.ost) on a new computer without having to back up the file.

The offline Outlook Data File (.ost) can only be opened by the Outlook profile on the computer that created it.

You can check the Account Settings in Outlook to see the types of email accounts in your Outlook profile.

1. On the menu, select File, then Account Settings and Account Settings.
2. On the Email tab, the Type column lists the type of account for each entry.

Note: To access some Outlook features, your account might need to be on a specific version of Exchange Server. To determine which version of Exchange Server your account connects to, see Determine the version of Microsoft Exchange my account connects to.

Preservation of H-Held, BCU-1PL, 100222mab.pdf 215 KB

Mr. Harris,

As asked in my previous email exchange, please tell me why my mother's personal email account with her personal email system is still connected to your BCU Exchange server after I notified you of this. Can you explain why my mother's email is still connected to your BCU Exchange server after I notified you of this? My mother's grandson-in-law David A. Paige is a BCU employee (either proper or contracted). He self-report email system since 2018 when my mother's account was created.

As outlined in the attached preservation of data letter sent to Mike Ryan on December 9th 2022, please save Mr. Brian Locke, an LPL Financial contract employee also has a BCU email account and that data needs to be preserved. Sending this with Mom's knowledge and permission.
