| Welcome                                                                              | Pastor Alyssa Kuebler |
| *Call to Worship                                                                     | JP Lyon               |
| In a world that remains divided and in conflict, God is inviting us, to make us one. |                       |
| Today we gather around one table, in answer to God’s will.                    |                       |
| What do we find at today’s table?                                                    |                       |
| God's love, which endures all things and connects all things.                 |                       |
| Let us worship together the true God, who makes us one                               |                       |
