

CURRICULUM VITAE: WALTER H PESCHEL MD

Education:

University of Montana: Bachelor of Science 1965

University of North Dakota: Department of Physiology—completed 78 of 90 hours required for PhD and all courses required for first year of medical school in two years. 1967.

University of North Dakota Medical School. Graduated in 1968.

Awards: First in Class; President's Roll of Honor; O.A. Seiki Award —Department of Psychology

University of Pennsylvania: MD 1970. (Third and fourth years of Medical School.)

Awards: Oliver Memorial Award for Ophthalmology; Offered Ophthalmology Residency at Shei Eye Institute, declined.

The Hospital at University of Pennsylvania: Internship 1971.

Not Board Certified: Missing Part I of exam; Passed Parts II and III at 97%.

Medical Practice:

Ashley Hospital, Ashley North Dakota. 1971-1974. One of two MDs, operated in 3 clinics (Medicine, Surgery, OB) in a 30-bed hospital with 86% occupancy. Ninety-hour work week. On call every other night.

General Practice: associated with three hospitals in Missoula, MT (hometown) 1974-2005.

--Approval and Privileges: 19 Surgery, OB, Medicine (including ICU).

--On staff and periodically held offices.

--Office Practice: daily 40 patients with average of 10 patients in hospital.

Retired due to health concerns related to DM radiation, arteriosclerosis from cancer treatment.

Retired in good standing and no disciplinary cases or malpractice suits.

Continuing Medical Education:

--The Hospital of University of Pennsylvania: Clinical Experiences arrived through access to residents from Internal Medicine training: Three years, one month each. Training in OB, Medicine and Surgery.

Acquired Procedures: Total GI Endoscopy; Liver BX; Peritoneal dialysis; Hyper-alimentation; Thoracentesis; Chest tube insertion; Lumbar puncture, etc.

--Mayo Clinic: Cardiac Auscultation

--Georgetown University: Heart auscultation

--University of Pennsylvania: Acid base; Respiratory failure.

--Medical Conference on Implementing Research on Humans; 1 week.

Research & Affiliations:

--Research: 29 years, continuing, at various medical and educational institutions including University of Montana: 2 approved studies; Montana State University: 1 approved study.

--Montana Medical Association; Missoula County Medical Society.

Recommendation: enclosed.