Mildura Travel & Cruise

Protect your trip now it is booked

Congratulations, your booking is now confirmed! It's now time to get your travel insurance organised. Cover should be in place from the time you make your first payment on your holiday, to protect both you and your money. DO NOT rely on credit card insurance. Click here to see why.

Before you buy

- Check what is covered, including medical, cancellation, baggage and pre-existing conditions.
- Declare any medical conditions when you apply.
- Read the Product Disclosure Statement so you know exactly what the policy includes.

Travel documents cannot be released until you have travel insurance in place for your travel plans. You do not have to purchase insurance with Mildura Travel & Cruise. Should you choose to arrange your own insurance and subsequently need to make a claim there will be a $100 administration charge for the provision of supporting documentation.
