FROM THE WINEMAKER

The 2014 Teroldego is a lighter and brighter vintage than Teroldegos of years past. Typically a very earthy wine, this vintage expresses characteristics of blueberry, plum, vanilla, and boysenberry. The 2014 Teroldego is a smooth, approachable, deep and rich Italian red wine with a finish that will linger into the evening hours.

FUN FACT

Teroldego is an Italian winegrape variety mostly known for wines produced from the Trentino-Alto Adige region of Northern Italy and is seeing a planting surge in California because of it's resilience in the vineyard and strong dark fruit characteristics.
