FROM THE WINEMAKER

The 2016 Aglianico is an experience with beautiful aromas of cherry, blackberry, leather, spiced plum, and white pepper. This wine pairs well with braised meats and rich foods such as BBQ, stews, and strong fatty cheeses. “The wine has a bright fruit forwardness like a Pinot Noir but with a stronger structure to age longer,” says Winemaker Mike Heringer, “and in Clarksburg, the wine comes out even brighter and with more minerality that makes it truly great today.”

PAIR WITH

Grilled rack of lamb with a brown sugar glaze

FUN FACT

Pronounced “alli-yawn-nico” and was first harvested by the Phoenicians in Ancient Greece
