FROM THE WINEMAKER

Petit Verdot is not seen as its own stand-alone varietal very often, but the 2016 Heringer Estates Petit Verdot deserves to be on center stage. This elegant, Bordeaux wine has unforgettable aromas of violet, cherry, plum, and leather, with a rustic yet sophisticated balance and allure.

PAIR WITH

Seared duck breast with sweet red cherries and glazed baked carrots

FUN FACT

Petit Verdot ripens late on the vine and is usually the last grapes to be harvested. Because it is late, it absorbs more of the environmental characteristics surrounding it.
