FROM THE WINEMAKER

The Heringer Estates Grenache does not disappoint with beautiful expressions of summer berries with added barrel complexities of vanilla, caramel, and leather. With over 18 months in the barrel, this wine is assured to be a crowd pleaser with a firm structure and soft finish that you will fall in love with.

FUN FACT

Heringer Estates has been growing Grenache since 2012 and from inception, the quality on the vine and the demand for the variety has led it to be 100% contracted to partnered wineries.
