

COMPANY OVERVIEW

The Amazing Corner is a black-woman-owned small business committed to promoting literacy, diversity, and empowerment through our range of services. From our online bookstore and traveling children's book fair to keynote speaking engagements and transformation workshops. We offer comprehensive solutions to support learning and growth, particularly focused on early readers, black/brown teen girls and women. Our mission is to provide positive representation through diverse books and empower authors through mentorship, self-publishing assistance, and coaching that leads to transformative lifestyle improvements.

DIFFERENTIATORS

- Black-Woman-Owned: Led by CEO and founder Tanerra Willis, our business is proudly black-woman-owned, bringing a unique perspective and commitment to diversity.
- Diverse Books with Positive Representation: Our curated collection features books that celebrate diversity and promote positive representation, ensuring every child sees themselves reflected in literature.
- Self-Published Works Only: We exclusively promote self-published works, supporting independent authors in sharing their stories with the world.
- Accessible Author Database: Tap into our extensive network of diverse authors, providing opportunities for collaboration and community-building.
