(A) Before taking any enforcement action hereunder, an enforcement officer shall make an immediate investigation for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not the presence of a minor in a motor vehicle, public place or establishment within the Village during curfew hours is in violation of subsection 13.10.

(B) If such investigation reveals a likelihood that the presence of such minor is in violation of 13.10, then the following provisions will apply:
1. For the first violation: The enforcement officer shall determine the name and address of the minor and warn the minor that s/he is in violation of the Village curfew and shall direct the minor to desist immediately from such violation and proceed at once to his/her home or usual place of abode. A record of such violation shall be made with the enforcement agency and the Village clerk. The Village clerk shall as soon as practicable, but within three (3) business days of said violation, mail a written notification of the violation to the minor and his or her parents detailing the date, time and nature of the violation; and that any second violation may involve notifying the juvenile authorities of Cole County.

2. For the second violation: The violator shall be transported home and the juvenile authorities may be notified of the violation in writing. A record of such violation shall be made with the enforcement agency and the Village clerk. The Village clerk shall, as soon as practicable, but within three (3) business days of said violation, mail a written notification of the violation to the minor and his or her parent detailing the date, time and nature of the violation, including that it is the minor’s second violation, whether the juvenile authorities have been notified of the minor’s violation, and that any subsequent offense may result in transport to the juvenile facility for Cole County for further action.

3. The violator shall be taken to the juvenile facility for Cole County upon authorization from the on-call county juvenile officer and be held for parent or court for any of the following:

a. For a third violation of the curfew established herein;

b. If the minor refuses to obey the directions of the enforcement officer; or

c. If the minor refuses to give his or her name and address, or the name and address of his or her parent, or gives a false name, address, or telephone number to any enforcement officer investigating a possible violation of this Section.

4. The minor shall be released to the juvenile authorities at the juvenile facility for Cole County to be dealt with in accordance with the juvenile law and procedure for any of the following:

a. For a fourth or subsequent violation of the curfew established herein; or
b. If the parent of the minor cannot be located or fails to come and take charge of the minor when requested to do so prior to the end of the applicable curfew hours.

(C) Optional method for release of minors. The enforcement officer may elect to take a violator to the minor’s home or regular place of abode and release the minor there, even if the parent is not available, if the minor is old enough to normally be left alone.

13.20. Enforcement – Other violators – Penalties

If an investigation by an enforcement officer reveals that a parent, motor vehicle owner or operator, or establishment operator or employee has violated subsection 13.15 of this Section, then,

1. If the parent, motor vehicle owner or operator, or establishment operator or employee has not previously been issued a warning with respect to any such violation, such officer shall issue a verbal warning to the person and record such violation with the enforcement agency and with the Village clerk. The Village clerk shall as soon as practicable, but within three (3) business days of said violation, mail a written notification of the violation to such parent, motor vehicle owner or operator, or establishment operator or employee, detailing the date, time and nature of the violation, and indicating that future violation may result in a penalty as described herein.

2. If, after receiving written notice of the first violation by a minor, a parent knowingly permits a minor child (not necessarily the same minor child) to again violate the provisions of subsection 13.10 of this Section, such parent shall be fined not less than five dollars ($5.00) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100.00);

3. If, after being previously warned in writing about permitting a minor to violate the provisions of subsection 13.10 of this Section, such motor vehicle owner or operator, or establishment operator or employee knowingly permits any minor (not necessarily the same minor) to again violate the provisions of subsection 13.10 of this Section, such motor vehicle owner or operator, or establishment operator or employee shall be fined not less than five dollars ($5.00) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100.00).
